Membership Requirements for the Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia

"Manakin towne in Virginia lays claim to being the largest concentrated purely French Huguenot town in all of Colonial America. Settled on some ten thousand acres of land on the south side of the James River above Richmond, the Manakin colonists, numbering over 800 were given strips of land, each fronting on the river. Some leaders of Colonial Virginia became interested in the cause of the Huguenot refugees in London, and under King William of Orange, the only Prebyterian ever to sit on the throne of England, the Manakin settlement was made in 1700 and was known as King William Parish in his honor.

Among the first vestrymen were the Sieurs, Amonet, Aubry, Chambon, DuTartre, Farey, Fonvielle, Maseres, Massot, Morel, Salle, Soblet and Trabucq. Later leaders were the Sieurs, Bernard, Chastain, Dupuy, DeToy and others, most of whom left permanent lines of descendants in the nation, over 2,000 have joined the Society.

The Society was founded April 17, 1922 in Vallejo, California They erected a memorial to the Huguenot forefathers beside the Manakin Episcopal Church in Powhatan County, Virginia.

The requirement for active membership in the Society is a verified line of descent from any Huguenot resident of Virginia prior to 1786. Invitation to membership is subject to the approval of the State Branch in which the applicant resides.

John Bernard[1]

The date of his arrival is not known. Virginia Magazine Vol. 11 lists Bernards and also the name of Etienne Chastain. Volumes 12 and 13 list more Bernards. It is not until volume 14 page 7 do we find the name John Bernard, Antonie Bernard and Nicholas Scott as giving 3 bushels of wheat in 1732 toward paying the minister. (3 bushels of wheat cost 3s.--the minister was paid 20s. per sermon.)

The date of John Bernard's marriage to Mary Abney is 1729. He settled at Four Mile Creek, then moved up the James River into Fluvanna County where he bought 200 acres on Horsley's Creek in 1739. He might have been the Jean Bernard who was Vestryman in 1737, Volume 14, page 181.

"Huguenots in England" by W. C. Durant p 85 Heritage Library Glendale, Calif.
"Peter Bernard received warrant of Denization (English citizenship) 15 December 1682."

It is presumed that Peter Bernard is the father, or at most, grandfather of our John Bernard[1].

QUESTIONS - QUESTIONS

The material in this book has been compiled by a group of cousins scattered "from sea to shining sea" few of whom have ever met, but volumes of mail has travelled to and fro.

As would be expected among thinking people there is a divergence of opinion on a few questions:

1. Was John Bernard^1, as he took several years to work his way from Maryland to Fluvanna County, Virginia, the John Bernard who received "154 acres from land set aside for French Refugees" in 1732 #1666 and who gave 3 bushels of wheat to help support the Minister in Manakin? We do not know of another John Bernard, however there was a Jean Bernard. Or did he go directly from Four Mile Creek to Fluvanna County?

2. Col. Couper, whose charts on the Bernard family made in the forties is considered quite accurate, yet he lists only two children of John^1--John and Elizabeth--Peter and Abner as probably related. Mr. E. E. Macy has done considerable research on this question and has found evidence which indicates that Peter and Abner were probably sons of John^1 and also there were several daughters. If not sons, at least they were cousins, but which?

3. In the Bible of William Rodney Bernard^5 (John^1 John^2 Allen^3 Thomas^4) there is a family history page which says John^1 came to this country as a boy of 14 and without his father's consent. (See page 16) Who did he come with or who did he come to? Brothers? Uncles? Note it says John Bernard^1, their "oldest son" implying more than one.

Any query or answer to these questions should be sent to

Dear Mr. Skinner:

Thank you for your letter and for sending your proposed Lacy pedigree.

As I ended (or rather began) mine with John Lacy who married Ellen Cromwell-bottom, I wish you would indicate that in your version.

In my book I tried to indicate that Watson is not considered entirely reliable, and for that reason began with what can be proven. As the Yorkshire Archaeological Society wrote, people have a way of claiming descent from important people and Watson, like so many, wrote what people told him, although in some cases he cites records.

Also, I have no proof that the Sir Robt. Baskerville he mentions was knight of Eardisley Castle and wish this could be removed from the pedigree as it bears my name.

I wish you much success with your book. I still have a great deal to do for my second volume and wish very much that it was finished.

Sincerely yours,

Alvahn Holmes

P.S. Please note that the spelling of my name is wrong.

INTERESTING BERNARD FACTS

JOHN BERNARD (1736-1825) served with the Virginians. In April 1755 Gen Braddock, with 2,200 troops crossed the Monangahela. On 9 July he fell into an ambush of French and Indians and was killed. Except for Washington and his Virginians all would have been killed. 777 Colonial and British troops were killed or wounded. The French and Indian War lasted from 1753 to 1765. Braddock was buried in the road at night so the enemy would not know of his death.

JOHN BERNARD, 11 Dec. 1818 "deposeth that he was one of the volunteers who served and marched to Williamsburg--being amongst the first volunteers that ever was there in our Revolutionary War--affiant believes on the 6th or 7th day of September 1776."

ELIZABETH BERNARD (Richmond Enquirer, 10 Sept 1822) "consort of Mr. John Bernard, died in the 80th year of her age, after a severe illness of 19 days. Piety, patience, resignation and benevolence were the great traits of her character. She was a member of the Baptist Church more than 30 years and died in humble confidence of future happiness."

JOAB MITCHELL BERNARD on 27 May 1856 his store at St. Bernrd Kansas Territory, 52 miles from Westport, was robbed by free-state men of $2,000.00 in cash and $4,000.00 in goods. J. M. Bernard had been warned his life was in danger because of southern sympathy and left for Westport.

JESSE BERNARD (Richmond Enquirer 3 Jan 1828) "On Oct. 18 at Petit Bluff, Miss. died age 27. He was carried off by yellow fever, after a short illness of 4 days." (son of Allen)

GEORGE EDGAR BERNARD (clipping from paper El Reno, Okla. Oct. 1917) "brother of Mrs. Earl Beebe of this city died last night at his home in San Angelo, Texas, aged 30. He is survived by his wife, Ora, and two children, Grace Thelma and George Jr. Typhoid fever was the cause of his demise. The deceased was a prominent business man of San Angelo and was secretary of the Board of Trade. Mrs. Beebe arrived in the city last night, having been at her brother's bedside and will not return to attend the funeral.

BILLIE BLACKSMITH--an old friend told Elizabeth Bernard there were two cousins near Dallas named Billie Rawlins and they were know as Billie Blacksmith and Limping Billie. Billie Blacksmith was the father of Mary Caroline Rawlins Bernard, our ancestor.

PURPOSE AND PLAN OF BOOK

JOHN BERNARD[1] A French Huguenot emigrated to America--Maryland-about 1720. The ship he came on is not known. He may have lived in England, came as an English citizen and so did not take the oath. Col. Couper lists two children, John and Elizabeth, but evidence indicates there were two more sons, Abner and Peter

This book will be divided into sections, separately indexed, and each section into chapters. Pauline K. Skinner set up the first section which will deal with

JOHN BERNARD[2] m. Elizabeth Barnett-- ten children. There will be ten chapters. Extensive information is found on four

JOHN BERNARD

D. ~ D. after 1767

Traditional accounts written about 1840 by his grandsons Overton and A. Rodney Ber-nard say he came from Eng-land to Maryland in 1720; set-tled at Four Mile Creek, below Richmond, Va.; there married a Miss Abney and then moved to the frontier, then Goochland County, about 75 miles westward.

1735 got 200 ac. on Horsley's Cr. (in present Fluvanna Co.) [See DB. 3-251, Goochland Co.; and Sur-vey Book 1, pt. 1, p 319, Albemarle Co., Va. (1761), and Land Book 36-811, Va. State Library (1765)

1761 sold 100 ac.; called Sr., a Planter, to Abner Witt of land "where he now lives"; his wife, Mary, also signed the deed (DB. 3-22, Albemarle Co.) The same deed, with wife's signature, is repeated in DB 4-462, Albemarle Co., Va., Nov. 28-1767

1 ALLEN BERNARD 3

Born JANUARY 29-1763 in Albemarle (later called Fluvanna) Co., Va., on the Rivanna River and south side of Adrians Creek. His son, A. Rodney Ber-nard wrote an account of his life about 1840 and said his father had studied medecine and had a practice as extensive as any in the county when he moved to Richmond (about 1815).

In 1783 he was in business in Richmond - a partner of the mother of Samuel Shiver; 1785 trip to Kentucky - went in a company account of route being through Indian country.

1785 was a partner of John Tate at "The Little Store," in Goochland Co.; in 1787 he married; Tate died in 17   and he moved to Johnson's Spring, in the east-ern part of the county near the Hanover Co. line. 1790 moved to Richmond and lived just west of the Washington Hotel.

3-23-1792 bought 1377 ac. on south side of Rivanna River and Adriens Creek, includ-ing the site of the house where he was born. Engaged in farming; operated saw and grist mills; after 1802 tobacco inspection warehouse. In 1794 taxed on 1627 ac. (4 tracts of 218, 850, 309 and 250 ac.)

1796 member Va. House of Delegates from Fluvanna Co; same in 1801-02, 1805-06, 1809 to 1815 (except 1812-13); sheriff, justice of the peace, election supervisor, etc.

1796 Town of Bernardsburg incorporated on his land; 1806 rejoined Methodist church - first joined at the Broken Back Church Conference.

1815-1824 Proprietor, Washington House, east side of Capitol Square, Richmond; notary public, etc., there.

1818 sold his land in Fluvanna Co. (then 1626½ ac.) [DB. 7-187], and bought 500 ac. in Augusta and Nelson Counties [DB 45-443, Augusta Co.], included was "The Moun-tain House" on the turnpike in Rockfish Gap. The venture was not profitable and he retired to a small farm in northern Nelson Co. left to him for life by his son Jesse (DB 6-343, Nelson Co.); there he lived after 1828 until about 1833 when he suffered a paralytic affection; he then lived at the home of his daughter Mary, then the widow Samuel Ferguson, nearby in Nelson County until his death.

In 1800 he was commissioned Major, 2nd Battalion, 19th Regiment, Virginia, and was thereafter called by that title. Three of his sons were Methodist ministers and their written accounts, about 1840, say that he took part as a very young man in the closing scenes of the Revolution; the nature of the service is not specified.

The location of his family Bible is not known to the compiler of these charts. It was [illegible] in the family of his daughter, Mary Bernard Ferguson Smith - it was given to a negro minister [illegible] —, who was study-ing for the ministry. Two copies of the family record were made by his son, Overton Bernard — one on Sept. 15, 1842, another, undated, about 13 years earlier, — they differ slight-ly, viz: John Bernard (b. 1736) died Sept. 9-1825 on the 1842 copy; he died January 15-1824, aged 87, on the older copy. Which is right? [1842 is a copy of a copy]

He died JULY 4-1834 in Nelson Co., Va., and was buried a few miles northward in Albemarle County, the following day, in the cemetery of Lebanon Church (Presbyterian). (From a letter, dated Rocky Forest, July 7-1834, from his son Thomas to his son Overton). He left no will.

Dear Mr Bernard:

Finally found the Cemetery deep in the woods near Payne Pond which has a dozen or so graves. Three graves only are marked. These are of the Reiley family and dates of death are around 1806 - Had a nice hike anyway & flushed up a wild turkey.

Please find section of Lake Monticello map showing street named in honor of Bernard family.

Best regards, I am very truly yours,

Richard F. George

COPY OF RECORDS FROM "THE COMPREHENSIVE BIBLE
CONTAINING THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS ACCORDING TO THE AUTHORIZED VERSION - J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO.,
PHILADELPHIA, 1859

(The Editor's preface ends with the date London, Dec. 19, 1826)

No handwritten name as owner but it must have been W. R. Bernard. All records up to my writing were in the same handwriting. The date 1859 also places it as his. The Bible is in my home but I feel I am the custodian for my son Frank Bernard Henderson, Jr. . . . (signed) Harriette S. Henderson, December 1, 1958

MEMORANDA - A page bound into the Bible - - -

Peter Bernard fled from France to England on account of his political opinions, and John his son, emigrated to America without his father's consent when a youth - fourteen years old. Married a Miss Abney and settled on Four Mile Creek eighteen miles below Richmond on James River, and subsequently moved to the "Frontier - fifty five miles west of Richmond, then called Albemarle. John Bernard their oldest son was born there Nov. 16, 1736 (the county was afterward divided and this part called Fluvanna). Elizabeth Barnett wife of this John Bernard was born in Fluvanna April 16th 1744, died and was buried at "Milton" in Albemarle county. Allen Bernard son of John and Elizabeth was born in Fluvanna Jan 29, 1763 and Ann Mitchell, Allen's wife, was born in Fluvanna Oct 28th 1764.

John Bernard's Home - Fluvanna County, Virginia

Ref. "The Bulletin of Fluvanna County Historical Society"
15 October, 1972

" The Rivanna River slips between Monticello Mountain and the Hills, stretches itself between wider banks, and enters Fluvanna County. . . . Just 101 years earlier the General Assembly had created Fluvanna's second town right across the Rivanna, on the west side. The town, founded in 1796 only twenty years after the Declaration of Independence, was named Barnerdsburg to honor a local family named Barnerd. John Barnerd secured land here as early as 1739. Fluvanna folk soon shortened the name to "Barnesburg" and in the County Cler's office you find it so recorded.

"The town lived and vanished so long ago that its history has a fairy tale quality, that of a veritable "Brigadoon". The Burgomaster's big house on a hill, a stone fort on the point of land overlooking the town, a gallows tree and bugles blowing to call the militia to drill on the flats below--evoke a past long sleeping. However, in its day, Barnerdsburg was a busy commercial center. One of the earliest warehouses for the state inspection of tobacco was established here before 1800. It is said a printing press and newspaper were here when Charlottesville was in its infancy. Allen Barnerd was the tobacco inspector and his brother, Joseph, was a trustee of the town.

"Adriens Creek enters Rivanna here. Lake Montecello dam changed its course. Here Allen Bernard had a tanyard and in 1803 built a mill-dam and grist mill.

"On the hill between the site of the grist mill and the canal locks are the remains of the miller's house, storekeeper's house, store and other buildings. The highway wound down the hill and crossed the canal above the upper lock and followed the cowpath until it turned down to cross the river on a unique water-level bridge.

"The pre-revolutionary war fort was later used as a jail and finally the stones from the building were used for highway construction. According to tradition, LaFayette and his men camped here on their march from Mechunk to Yorktown.

" The Bernards were true pioneers, and a few years after the town was founded, pushed on farther west. A housing development is now on the site and a street is named for the Bernards."

THE FRENCH BERNARDS OF VIRGINIA

Several Bernards emigrated to Virginia in the 17th century. All left descendants. It is often difficult to determine which set of children belonged to certain parents. The Richard and Francis Bernard emigrants probably left the most distinguished list of descendants since the present Queen Elizabeth 11 and Robert E. Lee are among them.

1. John Bernard[1] and his descendants will be the only ones considered in this book. He was said to have been a French Huguenot. This name was given from about the middle of the 16th century to the Protestants of France. The Protestants at Tour s used to assemble by night hear the gate of King Hugo, whom the people regarded as a spirit. A monk, therefore, in a sermon declared that the Lutherans ought to be called Huguenots, as kinsmen of King Hugo for they would only go out at night as he did. The French reform movement was an offshoot of Lutheranism. On 29 January 1535 an edict ordering the extermination of heretics resulted in general emigration. The first Protestant Church was founded at Strasburg composed of 1,500 refugees. The first Protestant community in France was at Meaus (1546). The church at Paris was founded 1556. Massacres and asassinations followed until the Peace of Alais 28 June 1629. It was not until 8 July 1643 that the Protestants were allowed the free and unrestricted exercise of their religion. This was revoked in 1685. Many Huguenots fled to England and Prussia. It was not until 1787 that the rights of the Huguenots were restored.

It is thought that the ancestors of the above John Bernard[1] fled to England and probably spent some time there before John Bernard emigrated to Virginia about 1720. Overton and Rodney Bernard say that he settled at Four Mile Creek below Richmond. There he met and married Mary Abney and they soon moved 75 miles further up the James where he bought, in 1739, 200 acres on Horseley's Creek now in Fluvanna County but once a part of Goochland County. (DB 1 p. 175--he sold 100 acres to Abner Witt 1761. He died after 1777 and Mary later. Both are buried across the Rivanna River from their home. It is thought the marriage took place 1729 Couper lists two children for certain with the probability of two more_ Peter and Abner. The two listed are:

2. John Bernard[2] b 16 Nov 1736 d 15 Jan 1824 age 87
3. Elizabeth [2] captured by Indians and never heard of again

Second Generation

2. John Bernard[2] (John[1]) was born 16 Nov. 1736. In Feb. 1756 was on expedition against the Shawnees in the Company of Captain Obadiah Woodson under Major Andrew Lewis. Called "Jr." on petition to establish a ferry; 1777 signed petition along with mother to establish Fluvanna Co.; 1779 got 150 acres on Cunningham Creek, Fluvanna Co. DB 1 175; got 250 acres on same creek in 1786 and in 1790 transferred the properety to his son, Allen Bernard. Rev. War - established a ferry. Died 15 January 1824, Milton, Albemarle County, Virginia.

He married 6 March 1760 Elizabeth Barnett[3] daughter of John Barnett, Jr.[2] and Sarah McCann. Elizabeth was b. 14 April 1743 (Allen Bernard family Bible) Newspaper article said she died in her 80th year 30 Aug. 1822 and that she was a member of the Baptist Church for more than 30 years.--Richmond Inquirer 6 Sept 1822. Both died at the home of their daughter, Mary who married Wm. D. Fitch 24 Sept 1803

Out of an Old Trunk

BY REBECCA PHILLIPS

IN an attic undisturbed for many years, from piles of antiquated letters and little family keepsakes, there came to light this spring, in a Florida home, the diary of a Methodist circuit rider, written just 112 years ago; the diary of a young Virginian whose dignified entrance might lead the reader into thinking that his years of service were more than the family records indicate. The writer, Overton Bernard, son of Allen Bernard, a Major in the Revolutionary War, was born in Portsmouth, Virginia, in 1798, and was therefore just twenty three when he wrote of attending the Conference at Petersburg as follows:

March 23, 1824: "Our Conference this year was held in the town of Petersburg, Virginia, commencing on the first day of March. Good old Brother Whitehead, Allen Bernard (his brother), Brother James Moor and I boarded in the family of Mr. Peyton Lynch on Sycamore Street. Having traveled two years I passed my examinations at this Conference and was appointed on the Board of Deacons March 1. Samuel Harroll, William D. Goode, James Morrison and myself, of the Traveling Commission, were set apart for that office by the laying on of hands. Reverend Enoch George was one of the Bishops. After much debate, and many resolutions having been passed, the Conference adjourned. I was appointed this year to Edenton (North Carolina.)"

There follows an account of his return trip, on which there was much stormy weather encountered, many swollen streams forded, and a resulting case of what we, today, would probably call a light attack of flu.

On March 28, 1824, he wrote: "Tarried all night with Brother James D. Edwards of Surrey County. Feeling somewhat ill, I traveled about 30 miles to Smithfield, where I remained until I could rest and recover my health."

Tuesday the 30th—"My brother accompanied me to Suffolk where we tarried all night with Brother Wills. The next morning I took leave of my brother and set out for my new appointment. Stayed Wednesday night at Brother Isaac Hunter's in Gates County, North Carolina."

Later in the year he writes under entry of June 24, 1824, "The early part of this month Brother Holmes, our presiding elder, returned from General Conference in Baltimore, after an absence of six weeks. I do not suppose that he has ever been so long a time from Edenton since he was ordained here, in 1812. The brethren and friends here (Edenton) were much pleased at his return.

"From Brother Holmes I learned that great diversity of sentiment prevailed at the General Conference on what is termed The Presiding Elder Question: Whether they should be elected by preachers or appointed by bishops. It seems opinion was equally divided. Some of our lay members loudly call for reform in church government: I hope the parties for and against reform will not manifest too warm a feeling on the matter."

Note the length of time which elapsed in both instances between the time of a delegate's arrival and his return date. ferences and Assembleys and Retreats in high-powered cars, vote on certain measures, once there—perhaps take part on one morning's program, glancing warily at a watch, to be sure we are keeping well within the 30 minutes alloted to us, at best, then hasten home again—in high, it is well to remember that we are descended from those who knew no such speedy transportation.

It was always a matter of days to get to the Conference, days in which there was plenty of time to go over and over again the verses in Scripture on which were based the thoughts to be expressed before that body; time for many little heart felt prayers for wisdom in saying the right words in the right spirit. There were miles of country traveled where there was nothing but the wild birds or an occasional startled deer to distract the thoughts and communion with God. And when once our great grandfathers met in solemn conclave to help forward the march of progress in church history they gave several weeks, not days, to the matter in hand.

We do very little "tarrying" in these hurried times, but our preacher on horseback of 100 years ago made many such entries as these:

March, 29, 1824: "Tarried all night with Brother Otis James."

Friday, April 16: "Rode four miles to Sandy Cross meeting house and preached; this is about 25 miles from Edenton (N. C.), Tarried all night with Brother Robert Nevins."

June 18: "Rode out to Elbert's Chapel and preached, tarried all night with Brother Sam Elbert."

Often our circuit rider slept on log floors, and sometimes, overcome with fatigue, he slept in the saddle. It must have been a luxury indeed when he found himself once in a while occupying the guest chamber of some planter's mansion, and could slip his heavy boots off and feel the luxury of the woven. "Rug" under his feet, for the "Rug," always included with the bed and its furnishings, was for many years of our early days in the South the only carpet in general use during the winter months. In this guest room he probably slept in a tester bed, with its "fallens," which was the valance around the tester and bottom of the bedstead. We think so little of our comfortable beds today. When we travel we are quick enough to look and see if we are to have the well known comfort-giving springs and mattress beneath us. But 100 years ago our preacher on horseback once in awhile slept at an inn along the route. On the old Federal Road through Alabama there were taverns on an average of 16 miles apart. Royston's Inn, where the Indians traded pecans to the traveler, he considered a "tolerable country inn," and at Fort Bainbridge, where the tavern was kept by Captain Kendall Lewis, at one time aide to Colonel Benjamin Hawkins, and whose silent partner or "sleeping partner" as he was called, was his father-in-law, Big Warrior, Chief of the Upper Creeks, guests who "tarried all night" were provided with the added luxury of a basin, pitcher of water and "private towel" in their room, for which they paid an addi-

If your church is one of hundreds that have, this year, built an additional Sunday school auditorium, if you have enlarged your main auditorium, or lengthened that adult Bible classroom annex, you may add another sentence or so to your prayer of thanks for the good things God has permitted us to have in this year of 1937.

Under date of Tuesday, April 13, 1824, our North Carolina preacher on horseback says: "Started my appointments in the country this week and preached first at the home of Zachariah Evans, one of the local brothers in Chowan County, about ten miles from town."

Wednesday, April 14: "Was about five miles out at Center Hill, or Skinner's Meeting House. After preaching, I went to old Sister Skinner's, a mother in Israel, and one of the excellent of the earth. I dined there and accompanied Brother Skinner home, about nine miles from the last appointment, in Perquiman's County. I preached to a small congregation in a house not much over fifteen feet square. Went to Brother Langley Billup's and tarried all night."

Sometimes the home in which they "tarried all night" was any thing but a pretentious house. In John C. Ley's "Fifty Two Years in Florida" now out of print, he tells of the young preacher on horseback, John L. Jerry, who was sent to St. Augustine, from the South Carolina Conference in 1818.

"From St. Augustine to Cow Ford (now Jacksonville) a distance of forty miles he traveled without seeing a house. From thence to Newnansville (one of Florida's old lost towns) sixty-five miles by Indian trail, thence to Micanopy.

"During one of these lonely rides, carrying his clothes, books and lunch in saddlebags and a little sack of corn to feed his horse, he found his money reduced to less than what would be about seventy-five cents today. He had stayed all night in a tiny log hut, and had meager fare of dried venison, tough and tasteless, and corn pone baked in ashes."

Feeling deeply depressed, he stepped aside and knelt by a clump of bushes to pray. Seeing something glitter in the sunshine and supposing it was a button dropped from some officer's uniform, he thought he would go over and pick it up, as a relic. But to his amazement and delight it proved to be a Spanish doubloon, worth about sixteen dollars. This met all his wants until quarterly Conference, when he received his regular instalment. Through the darkest days of the Indian warfare he went from post to post on his faithful horse, preaching the gospel.

"The people say the reason I am not troubled is because the Indians know me, but I say it is God who has protected me," he wrote in his diary.

Because of age its doubtful if Allen was a Major in Rev. War but may have been later-- b. 1763

List of Activities

In 1783 was in business in Richmond, Va. with mother of Samuel Shiver. In 1785 made trip to Ky through Indian country. Same year was business partner of John Tate at "The Little Store", Goochland County. After marriage in 1787, moved to Johnson's Spring, Hanover County line. In 1790 moved to Richmond where he lived near Washington Hotel. In 1792 he bought 1377 acres on the south side of Adrien's Creek including the house where he was born. In addition to farming, he had a grist and a saw mill. In 1794 he was taxed on 1627 acres. In 1796 was a member of the House of Delegates from Fluvanna Co. serving also 1801-2; 1805-6; 1809-12; 1813-1815. The same year-1796-the town of Barnardsburg was incorporated on his land. In 1800 he was commissioned Major, 2nd Batt., 12th Rgt. and thereafter called Major. In 1802 he ran a tobacco inspection warehouse, and for many years served as Sheriff, Justice of the Peace and election supervisor. He was said to have taken part in the closing scene of the Rev. War, probably when LaFayette marched through to Yorktown. (no proof)

According to his son, he studied medicine and had an extensive practice. In 1815 he removed to Richmond where until 1824 he was proprietor of "Washington House". He also was a Notary Public. In 1818 he sold his Fluvanna Co. holdings and bought 800 acres in Augusta-Nelson Counties, including the "Mountain House" in Rockfish Gap. The venture was unprofitable, so he moved to a small farm left him by son Jesse in 1828, until 1833 when he suffered a paralytic affliction. He then resided with his daughter, Mary, then widow of Samuel Ferguson, until his death 4 July 1834.

2 margin

This is copied from a letter Coz Lizzie Culbertson wrote Nell H. Tompkins last Dec (1937).

The enclosed clipping "Out of an old trunk" by Rebecca Phillips - in "Christian Advocate" of Sep 17 - 1937. - Published at Nashville Tenn.
As soon as I read it, I knew that the two young preachers mentioned were brothers of my grandfather Thos. Bernard. I had heard my mother speak often of Uncle Allen and Uncle Overton tho' she was only five years old when they moved from Va.
I wrote at once to Rebecca Phillips thro' the publishing house and they forwarded it to her add. - Montgomery Ala. I told her of my connection with the Bernard family, and what I knew of the two brothers who came to Mo. I asked if she were related to the family and what she knew of their history. She and her mother both replied very cordially, and said yes indeed! they were kin to the Bernards. Rebecca's mother who was Bettie Bernard 84 yrs old is a grand daughter of Overton Bernard and a daughter of Judge Jesse Bernard who lived and died in Talahassee, Florida. He was commissioner from Florida to the Centennial U.S. and while there met some of the western kin. I think I have heard Uncle Will Bernard speak of meeting him. Bettie is a graduate of Wesleyan Female College Va. and lives with her daughter Rebecca Phillips who is a writer. She writes a weekly column for a Florida paper and for several magazines. She sent me a typewritten copy of the Bernard Genealogy - which agrees with what you gave me (and also the family history of those who stayed in the east.)
The chief character was Ann Mitchell who married of us all. She lived from 1764 to 1851. Billie Bernard Powell (now 84) says she rembers her great uncle Allen Bernard visiting her fathers home in Florida, when she was a little girl. He gave them a written sketch of his mothers life, and she copied it, and her daughter Rebecca typed it and send it to me. — If I could type I would copy it for you, — but will try to give you a few extracts.

"Her (Ann's) father was John Mitchell. Her parents both died when she was an infant, and "she was raised by her own Aunt" — Ann or Nancy as she was called in her girl hood. Grew up with strict Church people, and attended the established Church, tho' she did not join any Church untill she was married to Allen Bernard, who was converted in a Methodist Camp meeting, so they both joined the Methodist Church. She was 12 yrs old when the Revolutionary War broke out. Some of her uncles served in the War and one of them was killed. The folks at home were very much annoyed by the enemy. The negroes ran off to the British. When the war closed she and her sister Betsy went on a visit to some relatives who were inter-married with the Barnetts, and there she met Allen Bernard. You remember his mother was a Barnett. After several years they were married and had a family of ten children, one pair of twins — Josh and Jesse. Their home was a home of the preacher and often a preaching place. — As we know — three of their sons became preachers, and Grandpa (Thos) Bernard was a Class leader. Her son Allen says of her "My Mother had a kind and feeling heart. The poor found a frien in her, she visited the sick, fed the hungry, clothed the naked, and lived in the affections of the poor neighbors. After the death of her husband in 183–, she spent the time with her children. (1) Elizabeth Southgate had moved to the West and settled at Covington, a few years before. She died the same year her father did. (2) Greenberry had gone to live with Mr Southgate and had died about a year after his sister. (3) Charles had died in Alabama. (4) Jesse in Mississippi, and (5) Virginia in Nelson County. — So mother had living (6) Mary B. Ferguson (7) Thomas, (8) Overton, (9) Joab and myself (10) Allen. Sister Mary B – afterward married Joel Smith, with whom my mother lived the last years of her life and at whose house she died. She suffered with rheumatism for sometime before she died, and was just able to get from her bed to the fire place or table, with the help of her stick and a chair. She had her second eyesight and could read her bible without glasses. Once when the family were all going to meeting and she wasn't able to go, she said "Give me my Bible, that will be my company while you are gone." She died and was buried in Nelson Co, Va where she was born. She was in the 87th year of her age." — —

I hope you can get something from these snatches I have tried to write. Like my great grandmother I have rheumatism too, and my hand is shaky. From what I learn I ~~that~~ think this old great grandmother is worthy of all honor, and I want the rest of the family to know about her. Rebecca B. sent me a kodak copy of a daguerreotype picture of her. It must have been taken after she was 80 and one of the earliest machine pictures. I am having some copied by the photographer for our children, and if they are good will send you one. Showed it to Cy. Btt. He remembers her two sons Thos. and Joab who lived in Mo. – Do you still belong to the D.A.R.? – I have given up my membership. This is a picture of a real Daughter of the American Revolution because she lived through it. I write to you because I know you are interested in the family history – With love to all the descendants of Ann Mitchell Bernard, – you see I am her namesake — Ann Elizabeth Culbertson.

Great Aunt Cornelia Bernard and her husband Jim Hamilton of Westport.

When Aunt Cornelia was a young lady, a neighbor man asked to see her home from Church one nite. They rode horse back. The only remark he made on the way home was, "Miss Cornelia look at the moon".

Seventy odd years ago! And we still repeat it on a moon light nite.

Aunt Cornelia's oldest child Reed, married a wealthy Spaniard named Andrew Francisco of Laveta, Colo. who owned "The Plaza". The old adobe building is still Andrew Francisco, the husband of Ann Reid Hamilton was b 10-21-1824,in Bath Co. Va; died in La Veta, Colo 2-17-1899. His family were of French ancestry. His brother Col John Francisco built the Plaza in the 1850's and it was a fort - a refuge for most of the early settlers during the Indian raids. Col Francisco was a settler at Fort Garland,Colo., in the early days. That Fort is now a State Historical Museum and contains many relics of Col Francisco donated by Ann Reid Francisco's dau.,Murray (Bombard)Daniels who was active in the establishment of the Museum.

Murray Daniels inherited the Plaza which has been continuously inhabited) and deeded it to the Huerfano Co. Historical Society which has done an excellent job of preserving it as a Historical Museum.

SOME THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS

By Katharine Moore

1942
d, 1975

Thank you, God,
for many things . . .
for earth and sky,
for Love that brings peace and joy.

The list of blessings found is long,
intangible as web of song or sudden flight of birds.
I cannot clothe them all in words,
even when I pray.
Perhaps it is enough to say - -
Thank you, God, for YOU!

William Rodney Bernard[5] (Thomas[4] Allen[3] John[2,1])
b. 8 Dec 1823 Albemarke, Va.
d. 21 Nov. 1906-7

Known as Judge Bernard, he was a pioneer of Jackson County, settling in Westport 1847. He helped build that part of the Sante Fe Trail between the Kansas State line and Westport Landing. He lived at the time of his death in a house he build in 1854. He was director of the first street railway; was part owner of Bernard and Mastin Bank in Kansas City.

He came to Callaway Co., Mo., age 16, 1869, worked on a farm; prospected for Copper on Lake Superior; was U. S. geologist 1846, went to Californis.

Was associated with F. X. Aubrey who layed out route for the Union Pacific through Rocky Mountains, was well acquainted with Sen. Thomas Benton; was a friend of Boone who pointed way of Denver and Rio Grande R Ry. organized the firm of Bernard, Irwin Co. which engaged in overland transportation supplying military posts and Indian posts.

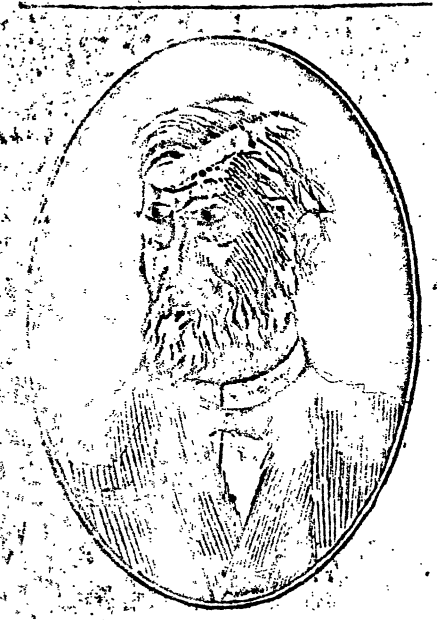
JUDGE W. R. BERNARD IS DEAD

A PIONEER FREIGHTER OF SANTA FE TRAIL DAYS.

Stories From the Life of the Man Who Associated With Frontiersmen When the Edge of Civilization Was Here.

Nov 21, 1907.

Judge William R. Bernard died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his son-in-law, Frank Henderson, 3906 Penn street. He was 83 years old. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Nettie B. Henderson, wife of Frank Henderson, three sisters, Mrs. C. O. Hamilton of Pueblo, Col., Mrs. John T. Buckner of Auxvasse, Mo., and Mrs. J. P. Harrison of McCredie, Mo., and a brother, J. E. Bernard of Lakeview, Ore.



JUDGE WILLIAM R. BERNARD.

The funeral will be held from the Westport M. E. church, Fortieth and Washington streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. A. H. Barnes will officiate. The old men's quartet of the Early Settlers' association will sing. The burial is to be in the family lot in Union cemetery. The pallbearers will be W. F. Seeger, T. B. Buckner, Milton Moore, Robert Carey, Robert J. Ingraham and Mayor H. M. Beardsley.

William R. Bernard was a pioneer of Jackson county. He settled in Westport in 1847. He assisted in the early development of this part of the country and helped to build that part of the Santa Fe trail between the Kansas state line and "Westport landing." He lived, at the time of his death, in a house on the same spot where he built his first home in 1854. He was a director of the first street railway in Kansas City and as late as 1897 was city treasurer of Westport, before it was annexed to Kansas City. When a commission was appointed a short time ago to trace the route of the old Santa Fe trail and mark it with tablets, Mr. Bernard was selected as a member of the commission. He gave valuable assistance in marking the trail.

Mr. Bernard was born in Albermarle county, Virginia, December 8, 1823. He was descended from English and Huguenot families. In 1839, when only 16 years old, he removed with his father's family to Callaway county, Missouri, and began work upon a farm. He afterward went to the Lake Superior country to prospect for copper and then to Galena, Ill., to the lead mines. Later he went to Dubuque, Ia. Early in 1846 he was appointed assistant United States geologist for the northern peninsula of Michigan. Toward the close of 1847 the corps of which he was a member was called to the southeast and southwest of Missouri for scientific purposes, and later went to California. Having a sister in Westport, Mrs. J. G. Hamilton, Mr. Bernard obtained a leave of absence to visit her before starting on his journey to the Pacific slope. He reached Westport on Christmas, 1847, and so well was he pleased with the town that he resigned his appointment and decided at once to become a citizen of Missouri and embark in the Indian trade.

Mr. Bernard and Colonel Albert Boone, another Western pioneer, established that year a large Indian trading post in Westport which, after the close of the Mexican war, began to do a large part of the business that had for years passed over the Santa Fe trail.

Mr. Bernard was also associated with F. X. Aubrey one of the men who laid out the route for the Union Pacific railway through the Rocky mountains. He was well acquainted, too, with that great Western developer, Senator Thomas Benton, who, Mr. Bernard often said, had one of the most remarkable memories and the greatest store of knowledge pertaining to things bearing on the West of any man he ever met. Mr. Bernard's partner Boone, was one of the early settlers and founders of Pueblo, Col., and the man who pointed the way for the Denver & Rio Grande railroad through the mountains, whose many intricate passes had been made familiar to him through years of constant travel to far Western places where his firm did business.

Mr. Bernard followed the building of the Union Pacific westward for several years conducting such of his company's business as was connected with that road. This consisted in supplying in part almost all the families and mercantile dealers of New Mexico—the Romeros, Oteros, Pereas, Armijos, Bacas and others, as many as sixty different Bacas being counted on the books of the company as customers at one time and as high as 2,000 accounts with Western families and firms appearing thereon.

After the building of the Union Pacific west, Mr. Bernard organized the firm of Bernard, Irwin Co., the "Co." being F. O. Kihlberg of Las Vegas, N. M., and engaged in overland transportation, supplying the various military posts in the West and also Indian trading posts.

Mr. Bernard was an intimate friend of Colonel Coran St. Vrain, the Berts, Maxwell, the Beaubiens, Abreaus and many other frontiersmen. Jesus Abreau and his brother Santiago, who was afterwards delegate in Congress from New Mexico, were in his employ in the early days as interpreters. Old "Jim Bridger," one of the heroes in "Inman's Santa Fe Trail," noted trailer and scout, was also in the employ of Mr. Bernard, for many years.

Should be Simington instead of Simons.

A road once ran along the top of the ridge from Thirtieth and Main streets to O. K. creek at Walnut street—the ridge upon which stands the Egelhoff home. Away back in the early '50s a Presbyterian minister, Simons by name, hired an Irishman, Mike Somebody, to dig a cellar for him on this spot.

A clearing had been made in the dense timber large enough for the coming house, but when Mike started to dig the cellar he found that one stump, weighing several tons, stood directly in the center of it. Without bothering himself as to the final disposition of the big obstacle Mike went on with his work, and so energetically that in a day the cellar was finished. But the stump was in it. Mike had taken the earth away from around it, lowering it gradually, without a though of the consequences or of how it was to be gotten out.

When Mr. Bernard, then a storekeeper in Westport, came along that day with his wagon and three yoke of oxen on the way to the landing for freight, he found Preacher Simons and the Irishman standing by the cellar with puzzled faces. Judge Bernard said that he and Preacher Simons, with Mike and the oxen, tried every imaginable scheme to get the stump out of the cellar and failed. Then they went on to the river and spent the night and most of the next day there attending to business. When they got back to the cellar, on the ridge, they found Mike sitting contentedly smoking. The big stump had disappeared.

"Where is it, Mike?" Preacher Simons inquired.

"It do be down there," replied the resourceful Mike, "I buried it."

Seeing no possibility of getting it out of the cellar the Irishman had dug a hole in one corner, rolled the stump into it and covered it over. The surface was smooth.

"Mike was the embodiment of Kansas City spirit," Judge Bernard said, telling the story a year or two ago. "If he couldn't do a thing one way he tried another, and he succeeded. That stump is there to-day, underthe Egelhoff house, I think, a monument to Mike—Mike somebody."

For many years, Uncle Will was part owner a Bernard and Martins Bank in K.C.

Notes from the Late Allan Overton Harrison

Sons of Allen

ALLEN R. BERNARD was born in the county of Fluvanna, October 9, 1795. Brought up under the tuition of pious parents, he embraced religion at an early age. In 1816, he was received on trial in the Virginia Conference, with which he held an effective relation for the period of many years. He commenced his ministry when there were but few Methodist preachers in Virginia, and when the life of an itinerant was one of peculiar hardship and toil. These he endured with a brave heart, and with self-sacrificing devotion to the cause of his Master. Brother Bernard was a plain, earnest, faithful preacher. His life was a living commentary on the truth which he preached. In all the relations of social and domestic life, his piety shone with a steady light. Verily, of him it may be said, "He being dead, yet speaketh." On the 9th of June, he was attacked with apoplexy, which entirely prostrated him, and greatly impaired his mind." In his lucid moments he spoke very encouragingly of his prospects for heaven, and expressed himself as being ready for the solemn change which awaited him. When asked if he had any message to send to his brethren of the Conference , he replied, "Nothing special; tell them to be faithful." On the 16th of June, surrounded by his sorrowing faimily, he calmly closed his earthly probation, and "fell asleep in Jesus."

✓ #47 Jesse Talbot Bernard5

J. T. BERNARD, attorney, Tallahassee. Fla., was born in Portsmouth, Va., August 20, 1829, and is a son of Rev. Overton #18 and Martha J. (Thomas) Bernard, both natives of Virginia. Overton Bernard^4 was born in 1798 and died in August, 1866. He was a son of Allen Bernard, also a native of Virginia, a major in the ~~Revolutionary war~~, and for twenty years a member of the Virginia legislature. Allen^3 ~~He~~ was a son of John^2 who was likewise a son of John^1 who emigrated from England in 1720. Mrs. Martha J. Bernard was a daughter of Ezekiel Thomas, and her grandfather, John Thomas, was a captain in the Continental navy during the Revolutionary war. Of her children, two, besides our subject, are still living —Alice M., wife of Rev. O. Littleton, and Lou.

J. T. Bernard graduated as A. M. from the Centenary College, at Jackson, La., in July, 1848, having gone to that point for the benefit of his health. He was appointed Professor of Ancient Languages in that institution at the age of nineteen, but resigned in 1849 and removed to Florida with the hope that the change would benefit his physical condition. He received the degree of LL. D. from the University of Florida, was admitted to the bar in Newnansville, Fla., in 1854, and practiced his profession until 1861, when he entered Gamble's artillery as a private, but was soon promoted to assistant quartermaster, Eighth Florida infantry with rank of captain of cavalry. In 1864 he was transferred to Gen. Lee's staff and had charge of the transportation connected with the hospital trains until the close was gone about six months and on his return was elected, in 1867, principal of the State Seminary at Tallahassee for eighteen months. In January, 1869, he was appointed judge of the county court of Leon County by the governor and held the office four years. In 1872 he was appointed by President Grant alternate centennial commissioner, and in 1875 was elected one of the committee of thirteen executive centennial commissioners, and served until 1879, making monthly visits to Philadelphia for twelve months. He was also the first Democratic mayor of Tallahassee after the reconstruction in 1876.

In November, 1850, Judge Bernard married Miss Mary E. Bradford, daughter of Thomas A. Bradford, of Leon County, Fla. A family of four children born to this union are still living, viz: M. Bettie, wife of W. G. Powell; Overton, Rubie B., wife of Thomas B. Byrd, and Jessie T., wife of Frank C. Groover.

Judge Bernard is a Royal Arch Mason and he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The judge, after his long, active and useful career, which has been the admiration of all cognizant of it, has now retired from the irksome duties of public life and is devoting his attention solely to his private practice of the law, in which he is so wonderfully learned, and to the management of real estate.

#55. Mary Bier^{5} (Bernard)Aguirre dau of Joab Bernard^{4} and his 3rd wife, Arabella Mather Bier was b 6-23-1844 St Louis,Mo.; d.5-24-1906; m Apifanio Aguirre 8-21-1862 who was b near Chihuahua, Mexico and was killed by the Apaches 1-16-1 1870.

Children:

EApifanio Aguirre^{6} d age 12

Padre J. Aguirre graduated from the University of Kansas; is an assayer and employed in that capacity in the Cananea mining district of the Denocratia mine in Sonora, Mexico.

Stephen graduated from Tuscon H.S. and the business college of Lawrence, Kansas and was in charge of W.C. Green Co. Stores in Canance district at Naco

Mary was taken to Baltimore in 1844 where she lived for 12 years. In 1856 the family moved to Westport, Mo. She m Epifanio Aguirre 8-21-1862. He was b 1834 near Chihuahua,Mexico. the son of Petro Aguirre whose ancestors came from Spain with Cortez and were gicen large grants of land in Chihuahua. In 1852 Pedro moved his family and a large colony to Las Cruces, N.M. He was a naturalized citizen and a member of the Masonic Lodge. In 1864 he had contr tracts for freighting for the gove between Colo and the Mo R along the Santa Fe Trail. He made and lost several fortunes. He had mule trains and ox trains. Once an entire train was captured by the Indians and another burned due to the carelessness of an officer who threw a lighted match in the praire grass. Mr and Mrs Aguirre were following one of their trains when the Indians attacked.

On one occassion Mary was left home while her husband and and 4 companions went to Tucson. They were attacked by Apaches and only a brother, Comrado escaped. Mary decided to join her family in Mo. She crossed the plains 5 times. This time she went to San Francisco andy by Union Pacific. She re- 1874 to Tucson. Here she taught in a Girls school; was given the chair of Spanish and English History in Univ of Arizona and received many honors.

In 1-23-1897 Mrs Aguirre wrote this account of her first trip to Tucson:-

"The first time I came to Tucson was Aug 1869. We left for LasCruces,N.M. in an Ambulance with a train of wagons that were bringing wheat and other things to Ft Grant, Arizona. There were also 40 men coming to cut hay near Ft Bowie to fill a contract made with the U.S.Gov't by Stephen Ochoa. These men were well armed and had wagons for their provisions and in which they rode part of the time, but most of the way they walked We had a baggage wagon with two big American horses and an ambulance drawn by a good pair of horses. Besides these and myself and 3 children and 2 young ladies--my husband's sisters. We had a tent, lots of provisions & were a well satisfied crowd. Our first days journey was rather hurried as we had to catch up with the train that had gone ahead & my recollection of it is of crossing the Rio Grand R. near Mesilla and then going miles and miles of a sandy desert sort of a road 'till near sundown when we caught up with the train & camped with them that night in the middle of a plain.

The next day we went along slowly feeling the heat intensely - it was the last of July. But at last we reached Ft Cummings and there were shade trees and water and a restful time for a day.

The Young Ladies & I hunted agates of which we found a goodly number. We washed handkershiefs and righted up things generally before starting out again. We started near nightfall. As a storm seemed brewing & we were to travel all night, the owner of the train offered us the use of the wagon that was loaded with wheat. If you have never had the good fortune to see one of these old "Prairie Schooners" you have never idea of the size of them. They were as long as an ordinary room and about 8' high. This particular wagon had 6' high bows covered with a wogan sheet. This particular was loaded to within 2' of the top with wheat. So before we started from the fort our bedding was arrainged on top of the wheat and we were lifted into tje wagon & comfortably settled for the night. Just before we started to get ready for bed, someone suggested that wheat always had wevles in it. This struck horror to my soul & I fancied the poor little onew getting weavles in their ears. So we hunted up handkerchiefs, doubled them three cornered, tied a knot in the end and there we had a knight cap. So we presented a most comical appearance when my husband peeked into the wagon to see how we were feeling. Soon all was ready and the train rocked & swayed back and forth in a lumbering way but never a jolt did we feel. Just a heavy swaying which gave me a most peculiar feeling as if being on the water & the loose wheat slipping away under us in a soft sliding way was indescribable.

The storm I mentioned before as coming on, came upon us in full force when we got well into the canyon-Magdelena, I believe they called It. That canyon is so narrow in places and the rocks so immense on all sides that the thunder was appaulling. It crashed and reverberated along those rocks till we were deafened and the lightening was something fearful & and never to be forgotten. Our "Schooner" rolled and reeled along, for awile in the rain and crash of the storm, but soon the train had to stop & there we staid for an hour. Even the children could not sleep. My husband came into the wagon with us. He had staid out to half guard the train & and Schooner especially for the road was so bad and the Indians were bad too, then. As soon as the storm ceased we rolled and rocked on again & were soon all fast asleep & spent a restful night. After that day nothing of interest happened until we came to Burro Canyon & Spring Springs. We traveled a gread deal at night on account of the Indians. So it was night when we passed those Springs. There had been a house there at the time of the Old Overland stage line and the walls were still standing and made a fine place of ambush for the Indians. There had been 2 mail carriers killed not long before & mail matter, such as a Congressional Records & Newspapers were scattered all along and thru the canyon but we had seen no letters. But this night was bright moonlight & we were driving slowly along when I saw a low hill ahead of us covered with white things. We all exclaimed and wondered what they were. And soon we found out - for there was a buckboard thrown over on one side & mail sacks cup open & letters strewn over the ground - all opened. My husband gathered up all he could hastily & we came on fearing every monent an attack from the Indians. But we came on unmolested. When we got to Steins Pass - gr eat preparations were made to guard against a surprise from Indians. Men were sent out to reconneitre and were stations on the hills above the narrow rock walled canyon thru which we had to pass. Two big wagons went ahead of the ambulance and the rest behing my husband drove the ambulance with his hand on his pistol & there was never a word spoken as we passed thu that awful walled Canyon. As we passed along the men on the rocks above scrambled along ahead and finally we came out into a wider place & then the men on foot came near the ambulance. Finally we came out of the Canyon and never stopped til we were in San Simon. There we camped & stayed all night. We were soon in Ft. Bowie.

where we stayed three days - the guests of the commanding officer Col. Bernard who is "Kinfolks". We were royally entertained with the best the Ft could supply & when we left were supplied with an extra escort of soldiers who came with us to Tucson. We were entitled to and escort, all parties of travelers were given escorts but there were some old running gears of wagons to be turned over to the commissary at Tucson so Col Bernard took this occassion to send them and they had to have an escort - so our esco was doubled. A party of young men had been waiting at Bowie for an escort and they came on to on horseback. So we had quite a large party. One of the young men was W.C.Davis. We came thru safely and without danger as every water hole we reached had fresh tracks of Indians around it. We traveled mostly at night and camped in the day time but we never quite felt safe until we were in Tucson. We had rooms in the building on the good street with some large houses just back of Zeckendorf's. Our meals were brought to us from the Cosmopolitan Hotel then kept by Capt Thayer whom we had known in Les Cruses, N.M in 1863. Tuscon had one long street only. Main Street where the Hall House now stands was away out of town.

MRS. MARY (BERNARD) AGUIRRE.

The life record of this highly honored pioneer of Tucson and the great southwest reads like a romance, and certainly few women have experienced such marked vicissitudes. Coming of distinguished and honorable ancestry, she is herself a remarkable woman, possessing a liberal education, and for the past quarter of a century has occupied a leading place in the educational circles of Tucson. In 1895 she took the chair of Spanish language and English history in the University of Arizona, a position which she yet occupies and for which she is specially adapted.

The Bernard family is traced back to the middle ages, and several of the name took part in three different crusades. Some of them were knighted and had coats-of-arms.

Joab Bernard,4 father of our subject, was born in Richmond, Va., and as a young man went to St. Louis, Mo., where he was in partnership with John J. Roe in a mercantile enterprise. In 1836 he removed to Westport, Mo., and soon embarked in the trade with Santa Fe. For many years he freighted supplies from Westport to Santa Fe and vicinity and to different government forts. Retiring, he passed his last years at his Westport home, dying in 1880, aged eighty years.

For a wife Joab Bernard5 chose Arabella, daughter of George and Jane (Cunningham) Bier, natives of Maryland. The father, whose birth took place in Frederick, Md., was an officer in the war of 1812, and was a grandson of Peter Bier, who was a native of Germany and was a pioneer of Frederick, Md. It may be mentioned, in passing, that the mother of Mrs. Aguirre and Admiral Schley of the United States navy, were second cousins. Mrs. Arabella (Bier) Bernard, who died at the home of her son, N. W. Bernard, in Tucson, in 1899, at the age of eighty-four, was a native of Baltimore, as was her mother, Mrs. Jane (Cunningham) Bier. The latter's father, Earl John Cunningham, was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1762, and after becoming a citizen of Baltimore, Md., took part in our second war with Great Britain, on the side of his adopted country. He was the master and owner of the vessel in which he crossed the Atlantic to his future home, and until he retired from active life was engaged in the merchant marine trade. He was buried in Green Street cemetery, Baltimore, and four generations succeeding him have placed their dead in the same cemetery. For a wife the Earl chose Miss Margaret Mather of Baltimore, a near relative of Margaret Wilson, the covenanter, who was a martyr of religious persecution.

The third of the eight children born to Joab and Arabella Bernard, Mrs. Aguirre is a native of St. Louis, Mo., where her birth took place June 23, 1844. Her eldest sister, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, resides in Westport, Mo. Mrs. 42 Catherine Worthington, the second sister, died in Baltimore, Md., and Arabella died in Westport, Mo. Mrs. Annie Rice is a resident of Grand Junction, Colo., and Mrs. Jessie Byrne, a widow, lives in Tucson. N. W. Bernard is in the cattle business in Pima county, Ariz., and is also supervisor of the county, and Hon. A. C. Bernard is a representative in the Arizona legislature and is the manager of the Tucson Cold Storage Company.

When she was an infant, in 1844, Mrs. Aguirre was taken to Baltimore, and spent the next twelve years of her life at Locust Grove, on the Reisterstown road, in Baltimore county, which property her father owned. In 1856 they removed to Westport, Mo., but the education of our subject was completed at the Baltimore Female Academy.

August 21, 1862, the marriage of Epifanio Aguirre and Miss Mary Bernard was solemnized in Westport. He was born in 1834 near Chihuahua, Mexico, the son of Pedro Aguirre, a native of the same state. His ancestors had come from Spain at the time of Cortez, and were given large grants of land in the vicinity of Chihuahua, and much of this property is yet retained in the family name. In 1852 Pedro Aguirre removed with his family and a large colony to Las Cruces, N. M., where he became the owner of extensive tracts of land and was prominently connected with many enterprises until his death. He was a naturalized citizen of the United States and was in high standing in the Masonic fraternity. When sixteen years of age Epifanio Aguirre became a resident of Las Cruces, N. M., and at the age of nineteen started out in the business world, in which he achieved fame and wealth. By 1864 he had the bulk of the contracts for freighting for the government between Colorado and the Missouri river and along the Santa Fe trail. In fact, he made and lost several good-sized fortunes, for the Indians, especially, seem to have held his destiny in the balance. He had mule trains and ox trains, and several times the redskins stampeded his animals. Once an entire train was captured by the Indians at a point between Socorro and San Marcial, N. M., and another train was burned on the plains, owing to the carelessness of an officer, who threw a lighted match in the prairie grass. Mr. and Mrs. Aguirre were following of their trains at a little distance in a carriage, when the Indians attacked the van and made off with all of the live stock. It becoming necessary to make a business trip to Altar, Sonora, Mr. Aguirre left his wife there while, with four comrades, he proceeded towards Tucson, where he had some interests demanding his attention. January 16, 1870, when near Sasabi, they were attacked by the Apaches and all were killed save a brother, Conrado Aguirre, whose escape appears nothing short of marvelous.

The terrible news of her husband's death soon reached Mrs. Aguirre at Altar, and for six months she remained there. Then the desire to join her kindred in Missouri became overwhelming, and though she had bravely faced the dangers and untold hardships of crossing the western plains no less than five times, always in company of her husband, she now felt that it would be impossible for her to travel that way. Accordingly she took the necessarily und-about trip to San Francisco and thence east over the newly-completed Union Pacific. Until 1874 she remained in Westport, and then came to Tucson across the plains with her brothers. In the following year she commenced teaching in the public schools of the town, and for many years was the principal of the Girls' School. That she is recognized as a successful teacher was shown by the honor which was conferred upon her five years ago, when she was called to the chair of Spanish and English history in the University of Arizona. She is identified with the Woman's Library Club and attends the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her second son, named in honor of his father, died at the age of thirteen years. The other sons, Pedro J. and Stephen, are fine young men, well educated and taking prominent places in the business world. The elder, Pedro J., a graduate of the University of Kansas, is an expert assayer, and is now employed in that capacity in the Cananea mining district at the Democrata mine, in Sonora, Mexico. Stephen, a graduate of the Tucson high school and of the business college of Lawrence, Kans., is in charge of W. C. Green's company stores in the Cananea district, at Naco.

He licks adversity with one hand

By MARGARET KUEHLTHAU
Citizen Staff Writer

William Bernard 8 can scarcely remember what it was like to have two good arms.

"So what?" he asks casually.

"It's what's up here that counts," he said, tapping his head. "I'm not handicapped. I can do anything I want to do."

The unassuming, friendly young man was not boasting. He was stating a fact . . . a fact that goes back to 1968 when the Tucson Daily Citizen carried a story about Bernard, then 16 years old, being a whiz of a softball player.

He still is.

This summer he managed and played left field for a team he organized, Bernard's Taxidermy Team. Under his leadership, the team captured second place in the league.

Having only one arm "is no big deal," says Bernard. "I have no intention of sitting back and pitying myself."

Bernard lost his right arm in a gun mishap six years ago while he was on a hunting trip. He was struck by a bullet from a gun which discharged as he picked it up from the back of a truck.

It is paradoxical, perhaps, that Bernard remains an avid hunter. He successfully has hunted deer, javelina and other game. He also has gone after bear, but as yet hasn't bagged one.

He drives a car and has wielded a shovel on heavy construction jobs. But that, admits the now 20-year-old man, "was not my bag because it wasn't interesting enough. My one arm is very strong so I had no problem with the shovel work."

Bernard can't remember bearing any bitterness after his accident, but he does recall it was with great difficulty that he learned to tie his shoes and taught himself to write with the left hand.

This year, Bernard has turned seriously to taxidermy, an art he plans to make his life's work.

John N. Doyle, a taxidermist at 3232 E. Ajo Way, says Bernard's work "is of excellent quality."

"As a matter of fact, I often think of Bill," he said. "Taxidermy takes a lot of skill and there are times when I am working alone — say on a Sunday — and I wish I had four hands.

"So I think, 'How would Bill handle this?' And I know that alone, working with only one arm, Bill would use his teeth, stick a part of an animal he is skinning (like a leg) under his belt, or he'd step on a pelt to hold it in place. It is amazing — the way he works."

William Bernard, a young taxidermist with only one arm, has just completed 16 hours of work to mount a Canadian goose for a customer. Boards underneath, light-weight matchholders + round caps hold the form in proper shape.

Bernard lives with his mother, Mrs. Eleanor C. Bernard at 5614 E. Eastland St. He credits his parents, now divorced, for his overcoming what might have been a great handicap. He said:

"My dad and I still hunt together and my mother teaches special education at the Arizona State School for the Deaf and Blind. So I guess they just expected me to continue to stand on my own two feet, like always."

Although taxidermy requires a special talent and can be a very difficult job, Bernard dug out an old mail-order manual he'd sent for when he was 12 years old and from which he has taught himself.

"All that book told me was how to do the physical work — how to skin an animal or a Canadian goose, for example, and how to use plastic or cork on the inside," he said. "It also showed how to model wires to reconstruct the bird or animal, fish or snake, to its original shape.

"But it takes more than just hard physical work to mount a subject. That takes an artistic ability and a knowledge of the habits of the thing you're mounting.

"That's why I get more out of hunting game than just a bird or animal to bring home.

OLLIE H. BERNARD. A self-made man of exceptional ability is Superintendent Ollie H. Bernard, into whose care the public instruction of the youth of Robertson county has been entrusted. Mr. Bernard is a self-made man, whose only advantages in life have been those of opportunity and of his inheritance of ambition, integrity and intellectual ability.

Of Virginian ancestry, he is a grandson, in the maternal line, of William Harris, who removed from that state to Tennessee during an early era of the settlement of the latter state. The Harris family were of sterling Scotch-Irish descent and widely known in their locality for worthy and honorable character. The children of William Harris included his son, John D. Harris, who served in the Civil war, and his daughter Martha, born in 1854, whose marriage linked the families of Harris and Bernard. Of French origin were the Bernards of Virginia, represented by Allison Bernard, a farmer and mechanic who spent the years of his manhood in Tennessee and Missouri. His son, William F. Bernard, born in 1844 in the former state, early found vocational duties incumbent upon him, for Allison Bernard died when William was but twelve years of age. As the eldest son of the family, he contributed to its support and with his mother returned to Tennessee in 1859. He became financially independent, in an unpretentious way. As a young man he won the hand of Miss Martha Harris, who as his wife has been a valuable helpmeet. Both are still living upon the farm which they own, and look back on a truly successful life. Their greatest success is perhaps in their two sons—the only children of William and Martha Bernard. Both are engaged in the noble work of education. Hal Bernard, the younger, is one of Robertson county's representatives of the pedagogical profession; and Ollie H. Bernard, the subject of this biographical review, holds the highest position of educational service in the gift of the county.

Born on May 27, 1877, in the county which has since been his home, Ollie H. Bernard received his early education in the public schools of his native state and in Kentucky, completing his quest for knowledge with a course in the Southern Normal School at Bowling Green, Kentucky, although owing to illness he was prevented from completing his course by three months' work. Since that time—except for four years of experimental activity in the drug business—Mr. Bernard has been actively engaged as an educator. For eight years he held positions in the rural districts and the villages of the county, thus gaining a most valuable experience in work of this sort as well as a most thorough knowledge of its conditions. It was therefore a logical sequence that, in view of his combined service, character and ability, the responsibilities of the office of superintendent of public instruction devolved upon him in 1905. Ever since that time Mr. Bernard has continued to hold this office and ably to discharge its duties. He supervises the work of one hundred and twelve schools and estimates the status of a large number of teachers and candidates for the teaching profession.

Domestic interests and those of church and lodge are Mr. Bernard's diversions from the arduous duties of his office. In April of 1909 he was united in life's closest and most honored companionship with Miss Ollie McMurray, the daughter of Mr. Dudley McMurray, who is one of Springfield's wealthy residents and a prominent factor in the tobacco business. Mrs. Bernard is a member of the Baptist church and is socially popular. In fraternal affairs Mr. Bernard has been for some years connected with both the Free and Accepted Masons and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the former order having honored him with

The Hurts took the 3 oldest girls to keep till John returned and a neighbor took Sallie, then about 9 months old. The name of the neighber is unknownbut thought to be Stratton. When John returned from the war he married Elizabeth Sanders and took the three older girls back home. The people who took Sallie had left and he was unable to locate her until she was nearly grown. She then did not want to return home. John was said by John Porter, his son to have become emotionally upset, declined in health and died grieving for his lost child. Sallie is said to have married a Mr. Williams

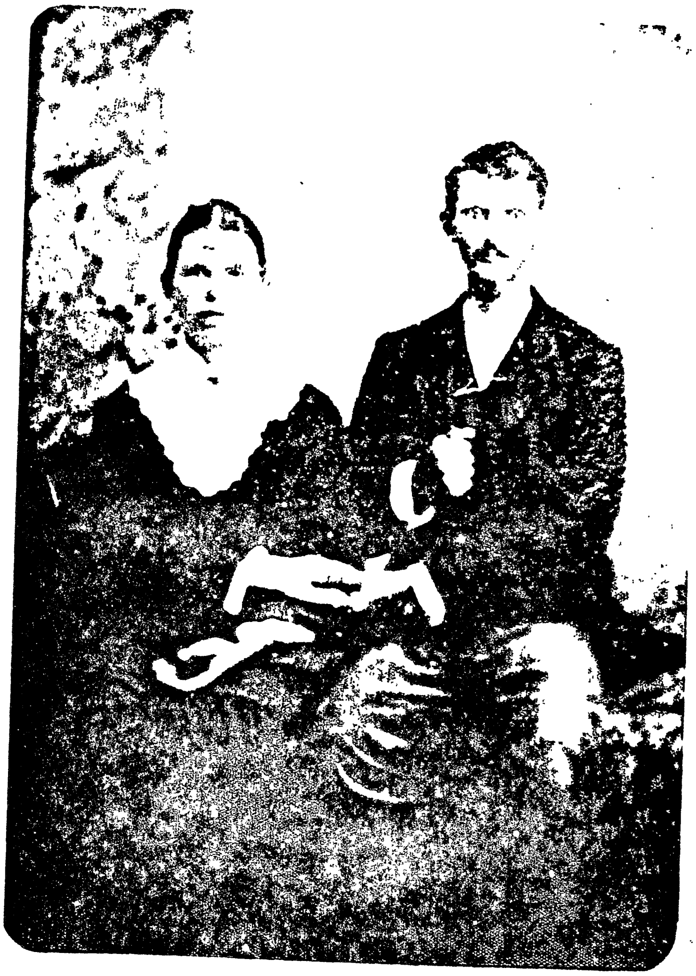
Jan. 29, 1979. Edgar Bernard, age 99 and quite alert, believes this is his grandfather. Cousin Edgar is the only one now alive who has seen Thomas King Bernard.

Thomas King Bernard^{5}
1st Marriage



Mary Caroline Rawlins and
Thomas King Bernard
m. 24 Dec. 1850, Dallas Co. Tex.

Note: In 1978 this tintype was found in an old chest belonging to Thomas King Bernard and his second wife when their granddaughter, Ona Dumpas Rain, gave it to her cousin, Thelma Bryant. Years ago Uncle Henry Bernard said he had seen a picture of his mother but did not know where it was. These people have such a strong family resemblance that we feel certain they are Thomas King Bernard and his first wife, Mary Caroline Rawlins, parents of our Grandfather, William Edgar Bernard.

THOMAS BERNARD, one of the most prosperous citizens of Dallas county, is to be found on his farm of 137½ acres, situated sixteen miles southwest of the city of Dallas.

Mr. Bernard was born in Robertson county, Tennessee, October 15, 1825, son of W. S. and Lavertia (Cunningham) Bernard, natives of Virginia and North Carolina respectively. His father owned and operated a farm in Robertson county. During the war of 1812 he served under Old Hickory Jackson, and was with him on his raids against the Indians when the latter were driven west of the Mississippi river. He was in the famous battle of Horse Shoe Bend.

Thomas was reared on the farm, and when he was eleven years old he had the misfortune to lose his father. He remained with his mother till he reached his twenty-second year. Soon after the loss of her husband, Mrs. Bernard moved with her family to Adams county, Illinois. In the fall of 1847 the subject of our sketch left his home, and with a caravan of fourteen wagons and four families, accompanied by several young men set out for Texas, landing in Dallas county, November 5, 1847.

Soon after coming here, Mr. Bernard, then a single man, took up a half section on Tenmile creek, where he now resides. He was married to his first wife, Miss Mary C. Rawlins, December 24, 1850, she being a native of Iowa and a daughter of William and Nancy (Sharp) Rawlins, who came to Texas from Iowa.

Mr. Bernard was married the second time, March 18, 1862, to Miss Mary Luck, a native of Virginia.

In March, 1863, Mr. Bernard enlisted in the Confederate service as a member of Colonel B. Warren Stone's Second Regiment of Texas Rangers, and was in the service from that time till the general surrender in 1865. He was with the forces that operated along the Mississippi and Red rivers, and was in the battle at Mansfield, La., when Confederates drove General Banks back from his raid up Red river. He was in the charge on the Federal camps at Fort Donelson.

6. Thomas King Bernard^5 (John^1 John^2 Wm.^{3} Wm. S.^{4})
Moved with mother to Ill. following father's death. In 1847 with cousin Chas. Horatio Bernard, part of large wagon train, went to Dallas Co., Tex. members Peters Colony took headrights.

Served in Confederate Army, 2nd Rgt. Texas Rangers under Col B. Watten Stone 1 Mar 1863 until 1865; along Miss & Red Rivers, was in the battle of Mansfield, La when Conf. drove Gen. Banks back from his raid up the Red River; was in the charge on Fed. Camps at Ft. Donelson. Was not injured but became so ill on battle field (dysentery) that he was left for dead, robbed of uniform & arms. Eventually made his way home; his wife spun, wove & made new uniform while he recuperated.

Prior to active service he was Cedar Hill Home Guard 2 years as a saddle maker.

A deeply religious man he grieved for divided family. Brother, Jas. Monroe and his son, were Fed.; He and bro. John Conf. Thos. is described as "very dark complexioned" as were two of his children--John Thos. and Lucy.

Mary Caroline Rawlins (1st wife) dau. Wm. and Nancy (Sharp) Rawlins, son of Roderick Rawlins. Members of Church of Christ. Thos. reared a Meth. but undertook Bible study of prove father-in-law wrong. Instead was converted--baptized in nearby Ten Mile Creek.

Mary Caroline Luck (2nd wife) from Va., dau. of John Luck (Gluck) from Germany as youth. He and wife, Lucy Gaines came to Ellis Co., Tex. about 1855, a blacksmith until his death 1863.

Biographical Sketch
Brunetta Bernard Griffith

Mrs. Brunetta Bernard Griffith is a native of Oklahoma and is of Choctaw background. Her mother and grandparents were enrolled Choctaws in the Choctaw Nation, and she is active in tribal affairs.

After her marriage, she spent many years in Florida, and upon returning to Oklahoma, studied six years under Professor Derald Swineford of Oklahoma College of Liberal Arts. She has been painting in oils since 1970 and has enjoyed considerable recognition in this length of time. She does works in other media as well.

Brunetta enjoys any subject matter, from humor to tragedy, and paints animal life, landscapes, still life, portraits and historical works. The Five Civilized Tribes, their leaders and historical sites hold special interest. Her series of Five Civilized Tribes, leaders of the Trails of Tears period, has been purchased and flown to Washington D.C. as an exhibit in the new American Indian National Bank. A booklet she was requested to write concerning them and published by the James Steel and Tube Co. of Grand Rapids, Michigan, accompanied the paintings.

Brunetta has completed two historical murals that required a great deal of intensive research and which have been of much interest to the public. One depicts the history of her home town, Rush Springs. This mural has been the subject of a TV talk show and is also used in Oklahoma's official Bicentennial History, 'Oklahoma's Blending of Many Cultures'.

Her five early Oklahoma frontier homes - half dugout, log cabin, sod house, little box house and Indian Tepee - are also shown in this book.

The other mural depicts the story of Sand Creek Massacre of the Cheyenne Indians in Colorado in 1864 by the U.S. Calvary. It has been received with a great deal of interest and is presently hanging in the Black Kettle Museum, Cheyenne, Oklahoma.

She has been invited for many one woman shows in other states as well as Oklahoma particularly at Universities, Libraries, Civic Centers, Museums, including the prestigious Gilcrease Institute of American History and Art of Tulsa and The Okla. State Capital. She was chosen as outstanding artist by Oklahoma Historical Society.

She makes a career of imaginatively portraying outstanding Indian personalities. Among these are nine famous Indian women and five Apache leaders. Her paintings are frequently reproduced in Oklahoma Today magazine. Also Oklahoma Educational Department is using several of her paintings concerning the culture and legends of Okla. Indian tribes in recent text books for public schools.

Brunetta finds any subject matter fascinating and her greatest desire is that her paintings impart an authentic story, and her work is used in the Cherokee teaching program of Indian Fine Arts. Frequently she is invited to lecture on Indian history, showing paintings of historical personalities and sites. She has a studio and small gallery in her home in Rush Springs where she resides with her husband.

LIVING HISTORY OF—

ELIZABETH C. BERNARD

By Mrs. Gloria Yu & George S. Yu

SEARCY, Arkansas—Elizabeth Carolyn Bernard was born October 10, 1890, in Desoto, Dallas County, Texas. Following her father's medical tradition she became intersted in and decided to study nursing, which later proved an invaluable tool to save many lives including some of us still living today.

In December 31, 1932, she sailed from Los Angeles for China as one of the church of Christ pioneer missionaries. She served more years in the field than any other missionary in China. The many who knew her through the years appreciate the dedication, devotion, and love she had for God.

After arriving in Hong Kong, she settled down in Po Kong To, Kowloon City, and later Fuk Wa Kai, Sham Shue Po. She finally chose to settle in Canton, where the first Bible school was begun by Dr. George S. Benson. In addition to her other church works, she taught English at Yuen To Bible School until the Japanese came. Then she moved to Hong Kong with her two Chinese children and while there she took in more children. From then on, her work was centered on raising Chinese children.

Prior to World War II she moved to Macao with the entire family where the church work was continued and conducted by Brother Lowell B. Davis and his family. When Hong Kong fell into the hands of the Japanese army in 1941, Macao was isolated and support was cut from the States because of the war. So, in May, 1942, she escaped from Macao to Kwangsi, and was temporarily housed in the Baptist Mission Compound. She lived on a boat which was owned and operated as a jam factory by Brother Lowell B. Davis. About two years later, in 1944, she left Kweilin on the way back to America. Only she knew the danger, hardship and disappointment during the war years.

When the war was over she was ready to return to China. On January 25, 1947, she left San Francisco with her mother, Estella Silvena Bernard (who died in Hong Kong in 1950), and arrived in Hong Kong, February 12, 1947. The next day she went on to Canton where she joined Brother Davis and other local brethren to continue the church work and the reopening of the Bible school. She was in charge of an orphanage home and taught English at Yuen To. Then came the Communists in 1949. All the church of Christ missionaries returned to the States except her. The church had left no one to lead. A few Chinese brethren tried, but lacked financial support to continue. Consequently, she initiated regular meetings at her home in Tai Po Market, new territory, on Sundays. Nightly reading of the Bible was introduced so the young could learn the truth from the beginning.

Years went by before a few missionaries, led by Brother Melvin Harbison, answered the call to revive the disabled church work in Hong Kong. In 1968, she returned to the States with one of her children in the hope that she might find peace and plenty of rest which she rightly deserved in the later years of her life. However, she found that this country was not the same country as it was in 1947, and realized her heart still belonged to her Chinese people in Hong Kong. Hence, she wrote suddenly and very urgently to one of her children in Hong Kong in 1969 that she is "coming home." When she finally arrived "home" she had two Hong Kong dollars in her pocket—which is about 35 cents in U.S.

But Miss Bernard expired, after more than a quarter of a century in China, on December 12, 1971. Her remains will be cremated and buried in her mother's grave in the Protestant Cemetery, Happy Valley, Hong Kong. She had fought a good fight; she had kept the faith.

Much of the material on Janette Bernard^{6} was provided by Thelma Bryant, 526 W. 5th, Lancaster, Texas.

Neal Ray Vannoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vannoy of Terrell, may not be the best guitar player in the world, but he can trace his roots to Roderick A. Rawlins, who was one of the founders of Lancaster. He is a 6th great-grandson of Roderick A. Rawlins on his mother's side of the family.

His grandparents, Robert Jordan and Joan Locke Jordan, were former residents of Lancaster. Texas

MRS. MARY E. BERNARD DEAD

Body Sent To Lancaster—Long Line Of Descendants.

Mrs. Mary E. Bernard, 83 years old, who is survived by seven children, twenty-six grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Bumpas, 103 S. Washington, at 3:30 Sunday morning. Funeral services were held from the home, conducted by the Rev. T. M. Carney, pastor of the Church of Christ. The body was shipped to Lancaster, Texas. Sunday afternoon on the Santa Fe by the Chas. A. Robison Company.

Mrs. Bernard had lived in San Angelo since the summer of 1907. She was a diligent student of the Bible and had a remarkable ability for remembering what she had read. Her mind remained clear until a short time before her death. Out of her sixty descendants, all are members of the Church of Christ, except the two youthful great great grandchildren, due largely to the influence of the dead woman.

She is survived laso by one sister, Mrs. Milanda Moore of this city. The seven children are: Mrs. Mollie Counts of Stevensville, Mrs. Jeanette Cummins of Red Oak, Texas, Mrs. Will Burns, of Merkle, Mrs. Fred Pogue of Myrtle Springs. Mrs. Lucy Bumpas of San Angelo, Dr. J. T. Bernard of Los Angeles and J. V. Bernard of Dallas.

STORY OF MARTHA ANN BERNARD, (122=8), 7th child of William Smith and Rutia, b. Jan. 17, 1832 Robertson County, Tennessee, and her husband JASON AUGUSTUS BUSHNELL, born Catteraugus Co., N.Y., Sept. 26, 1828.

When Martha Ann was only six years old her father died, in December, 1837. Two months later her widowed mother gave birth to a second set of twins, Emily Elizabeth and Albin Gatewood. The first set of twins, Jesse and Virginia, were younger than Martha Ann. Great changes and decisions beset the family. The oldest son, James Monroe, was only 14 years of age, and besides him and little Martha Ann and the two sets of twins, there were William Allison, Berthier, John, Julia, Thomas King, Matilda and Sarah, and Martha. At the father's death, his Bounty Land #246322, was left to the two younger twins, and the papers were signed by Mattie's ~~future~~ husband, Charles S. Allen. (The Allen family were old friends, and at least two intermarriages occured, for later the oldest daughter of James Monroe, Eliza, married Jesse Allen in Illinois). Various members of the large total families of Bernards had already gone to Illinois, settling at Payson, Adams County, not too far from Quincy. There the widowed Rutia took her brood around 1836-40, leaving in Tennessee those old enough to fend for themselves or who preferred to remain there. Little Virginia was raised there. Rutia lived in the home of her son James Monroe and his wife, Martha Ann Griffith Bernard. Later she married again, a Mr. Hibbard, probably around 1847. But sometime before 1853, a (possible cholera) epidemic in the area caused the death of both of them.

Meantime, on January 18, 1853, Martha Ann married her sweetheart, Jason Augustus Bushnell, a widower, and with him began a long life which was to carry them over the old Oregon Trail to the West Coast, to Oregon and later California. Only once did she visit back in Illinois at the home of her older sister, Matilda Allen. This was after 1870, where her daughter Ursula Grace (122-87) was a small girl, just old enough to remember. Then, as happened also in the family of other branches of the family who "came West", the close ties were broken. It is only within the last two years that we have been able to make connections and draw together the outlines of the history of the different parts of the clan. How grateful we are to all who have been so helpful! Old newspaper files give some account of the journey West of the Bushnell and Adkins families, Mrs. Adkins being a sister of Jason Augustus. Crossing the plains with an ox team, they arrived in Lane County in the fall of 1853. Their donation claim was six miles southwest of Junction City, where they remained for 13 years. A move to Irving, then to Eugene settled them until after her husband's death in 1878, and their children were grown, she moved near to her son, Dr. George E. Bushnell, in California, taking the two daughters with her. The company in which they crossed the plains consisted mostly of Adkins and Bushnell families, and hardships were many. The food supply gave out while they were in eastern Oregon trying to locate a route down the almost untrodden lava beds, forests and gorges. They might have starved to death but for the successful effort of a young Frank Owens and two companions. These three started down the pass to the Willamette Valley for food and help, reduced to eating snails and bark of trees, they struggled thru to the valley, obtained food and help, and the starving emigrants were saved. The Bushnells and Adkins separated from the other train and came down the old military pass, reaching the Valley in safety. These pioneers, with many others spent a lifetime of hardship, and by their hope and courage made a wonderful paradise of home, presented as a rich heritage to their posterity. As they reached their destination that fall, we marvel at thy courage they showed, for Martha Ann's first child, Helen Elva (122-81), was born in Lane County, Nov. 1, 1853, the day after they arrived! She was 22 years of age, her husband 25!

Other children born to them were George Corydon (122-82), who died in infancy; George Edward Bernard (122-83); Harriet Matilda (122-84); Daniel Augustus (122-85), who also died young; and Ursula Grace (122-86). It was she who visited in Illinois with her mother in the early 1870s. In 1895 she married Allyn Heald Cooke in San Francisco, but was widowed 3 years later. The son of their marriage, Allyn Alfred Bushnell Cooke (122-861), born 1896, was a Baptist missionary in Yunnan Province, China, where he created an alphabet and translated the Bible into the dialect. Later he worked in Laos and Thiland. Since retiring to Oregon, he has translated the Bible into Laos and is working on translation of hymns. His second son, Joseph, was caught in a Singapore School by the Japanese and spent the war in a camp, returning on the 2nd Gripsholm. He now is a Language Teacher at University of Washington, where he has his doctorate in Far East Languages. His father, Rev. Allen Cooke, lives in Salem, Oregon.

The second daughter in the family of Martha and Jason Bushnell, Harriet Matilda, was born Dec. 30, 1863, and on Aug. 8, 1894 was married to John Saunders, who was English and Irish. Born in Canada, he was a year older than his wife, who was of French and English stock. Of the three children born to them, we are most interested in Lucille (122-841), who was born in 1896 in Eugene. By the time of her marriage in 1922 the family were in California, and she and Clyde Emerson Sutton were married in San Jose, where both of their children were born - John Clyde (122-841-1), in 1924, and Ruth Lucille (122-841-2), in 1927. Ruth has been one of the prime "researchers" in our family project.

Her parents started Sutton's Footwear in 1925 in Modesto, where her husband, Robert C. Hironymous, is now employed. With their five children (three by her first marriage, who have been adopted by Robert) they comprise a busy and interesting household.

To conclude the history of Martha Ann Bernard Bushnell, when she died in Berkeley, July 2, 1904, the San Francisco Examiner stated, "she was the beloved mother of Dr. George E. Bushnell of San Francisco, Helen E. Bushnell and Mrs. Grace B. Cooke of Berkeley, and Mrs. J. E. Saunders of Delta, Colorado. She was a native of Tennessee, age 73 years, 5 months and 14 days." She is thus, so far as our present knowledge goes, the first of our Bernards to extend the family line to the Pacific Coast, after its first arrival on the Atlantic Coast almost three hundred years earlier.

An excerpt from an old letter of hers reads thus: "We left the Old Emigrant trail after crossing Snake River at Old Fort Boise. We took the Elliot cut-off. Our course lay toward the Three Sisters. We were on the desert two days and nights without water. When we reached Fall River we had to go up that stream and cross the Cascade south of Diamond Peak. We were 5 days down the Willamette. A lady who died some years ago at Springfield reported we forded the Willamette River 56 times. We arrived in Springfield the last days of October. Have been 5-1/2 months on the journey. We heard of some vacant land on Fern Ridge. After resting a couple of days we drove there. The road was between Skinner's Butte and the River. So we didn't see Eugene. In fact, there were none to see except a few shanties in Eugene."

In the 1940s Ursula Grace (Bushnell) Cooke Durrell (1870-1961) was asked by her son, Allyn Cooke, to list the names of her grandparents and order of birth of their children. Below is given part of what she wrote.

Interestingly, two of the Bernard children each named a daughter for the Grandmother; one was named Mary Rosia Lane, the other Rutia Janette Bernard. Thomas King Bernard said his Mother's name was pronounced as though it were spelled "Rooshia".

Death of an Estimable Lady.

Mrs. Virginia England, wife of Mr. Jas. England, one of Springfield's most esteemed citizens, passed away Monday morning after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church, conducted by Revs. L. F. Amis and S. D. Ogburn, and her remains were interred in Elmwood Cemetery Tuesday morning in the presence of many friends and relatives. Mrs. England was a good wife and mother and a true Christian woman. THE LEADER extends its fullest sympathy to the sorrowing husband and children.

1889 May 26—VALENTINE BERNARD died in Platte, near Smithville. He was born in Virginia November 20, 1795, came to Kentucky in 1810, removed to Tennessee, thence, in 1838, to Illinois, and finally to Platte in 1867. In 1816 he married Mary McMillan. She died in 1822, and he married, March 9, 1824, Martha Yates. Some apocryphal stories are told of a visit he made to this county in 1819, and his residence several years at Rialto, trading with Indians. (See Gatewood's "History of Platte," page 540). His last wife was born in North Carolina, June 2, 1799, and died in Platte January 20, 1891. Ch: 1, James M. Bernard, b. in a paper entitled "Survey of Kansas Indian Lands," read January 15, 1889, before the Kansas State Historical Society, and printed in the fourth volume of "Kansas Historical Collections," page 303, writes:

"Captain Martin, in 1818, camped for the winter with three companies of U. S. Riflemen, on Cow Island, ten miles above Leavenworth, and during that winter killed between two and three thousand deer, besides great numbers of bears, turkeys, etc."

I have often conversed with Mr. Calvert upon his stay at Cow Island. He said that hunting companies often crossed to the Missouri side, in Platte County, and found abundance of game. Indians were not found east of the Missouri.

VALENTINE BARNARD'S STORY.

In the Landmark of March 23, 1883, is a long, rambling, and apochryphal statement, by Mr. Barnard, which is reproduced in Gatewood's "History of Platte." He says that, with several young friends of Clay County, he boarded one of the Yellowstone steamers, and was put off at Rialto, below the site of Weston, where a few Indian traders had established themselves. Mr. Barnard did not come to Missouri earlier than 1835. About that time a gang of discharged soldiers built cabins at Rialto, and engaged in the illicit sale of whisky to soldiers of Fort Leavenworth and to the Indians. To dislodge them, the northern limit of the Military Reserve was extended so as to embrace Rialto. But Mr. Barnard's story is absurd in its conception and contradictory in its details.

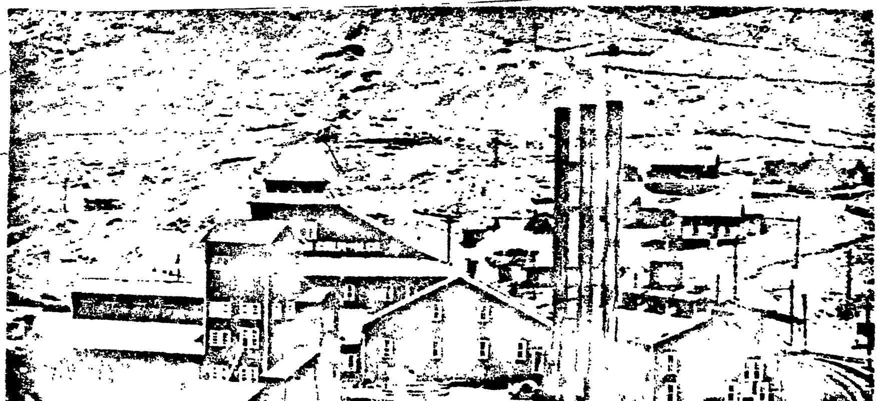
2. Many mining camps have grocer success stories (H. A. W. Tabor of Leadville was a grocer). Sam and George Bernard each had small groceries in the Springs. A Fountain schoolteacher, Van E. Rouse, clerked for Sam in the summer. In '92, Sam Bernard and Rouse took over from William Shemwell a half interest in the Elkton claim for canceling Shemwell's $36.50 grocery bill. George Bernard paid Smith Gee, the colored ash-hauler, $50 for Gee's eighth interest. George financed development work for two years until he was just about broke and the Elkton was to be abandoned. Then the Bernards found pay dirt — $40,000 worth in the first week. Eventually the Elkton produced gold worth $16,000,000. Later, Sam Bernard got control of another rich mine, the Beacon Hill El Paso (not Womack's) — a $11,000,000 producer. The Bernard boys took their millions and more or less retired from mining in 1902. George bought a huge ranch north of the Springs and raised blooded cattle. Sam went in for trotting horses. But George died practically penniless in 1933. Sam died in '37, an indigent patient at Colorado State Hospital.



The Bernard Brothers' great Elkton Mine produced gold worth over $16,000,000. But both brothers died practically penniless.

Icy Pauline Bernard^{4} (Wm.^{3} John^{2} John^{1})
b. 20 Mar 1799 Va., probably Fluvanna Co.
d. 6 Dec. 1877 bur Rawlins Cem, near Lancaster, Dallas Co Tx.

(Notes) Lucy Bernard Bumpas (1863-1950)said when she was a small child, her father's aunt, Icy Porter, came to visit them. She wore a black, rustly dress, black bonnet lined with white and was the most beautiful lady Lucy had ever seen.

In a letter which George Fisher has, written in 1872, Chas. H. Bernard said Frank, Jo and Raish Porter were in business in Lancaster. Also that Albert Porter and Horace Holman were in school near Nashville; "Old Lady Porter" was living most of the time with Jo. Gate Bernard^{5} son of Wm. S.^{4} was in Arkansas with his brother, Jack.

When Wm. Edgar Bernard^{6} was about 10 (his father away in the Civil War), he was put on a horse with two bags of grain to go to the mill some ten miles away but he was not afraid for every family on the road was a relative.

The exact order of the children is not known. Sources are 1860 census Dallas Co., information from Mrs. Ragland, tombstones, information which Elizabeth had, some my mother, Lillie Beebe, had, Ellis Co., records. Mrs. Ragland said the girls married Holman, Rawlins, Bandy. The Parks, Rawlins, Bandy families are greatly intermarried.

m. John Franklin Porter b 22 Aug 1781; d 2 Dec 1857. They lived in Dallas Co. in 1847. Mrs. Ragland says they came from Robertson Co., Tenn.

Children:

Josiah Porter^{5} in Lancaster 1872, above letter.

He died 2 or 3 years before she did. She lived all her life in Cedar Hill.

Elizabeth Bernard said Uncle Raish (Horatio) Porter was an atheist but Aunt Bett was a Hard Shell Baptist. They were old when she was a child.

IcyRagland. lists her grandfather, Horatio as Rachel David Porter. He was called Raish. She was very frail in 1972 and her handwriting was quite shaky.

8. Jesse Booker Bernard^3

Letter from Rebecca Boulden, Genealogist -Jesse B.Bernard^3

The will and administration of Bernard was Jesse B. Bernard in will Book "E" pg 248, 249 - Inventory of his estate - date of 29 Oct 1833 with Wm Wood - adm with will annexed.

The first record of our office of Jesse B. Bernard was Order Book 7 p 139 at Feb term 1819 when Jesse B Bernard produced a commission from the Gov. of Ky to become a Justice of the Peace. He was a magistrate at the time of his death and all books and records of his were turned over to the Court after his decease.

Order Book 8 p 52 Sept term 1823 goes James Crewsdson bond for $700. for guardianship of James and Eleanor Ross infant, heirs of John Ross.deceased. Jesse B Bernard was guardian for Sophia W.V Ross: ashe made choice of him with bond of $400.

pg. 261 He was appointed to collect fine money for Geo Herndon pg. 460 He was allowed $600 for building bridge across Red River.
pg. 468 he was allowed an additional $200 for above bridge.
pg. 493 he brought Crewsdon into court and asked that he give additional security for the Ross Children and Crewsdon refused and they were awards of Spencer and Samuel Curt Order Book 9 pg 170 Jesse B. Bernard is deceased and is will is brought into court - the noncuputive will that is - copy enclosed. Wm Woods made administrator and several of the children made choice of their older brothers and sisters as their guardians. photo enclosed.

p 341- settlement of Wm Woods.

Wm Woods was the son of John Woods, the rev soldier who was the son of Lashley Woods, also Rev soldier and they lived next farm to Bernards. There is a cemetery of the old Woods farm. I have just learned in the past few days and when I return from my vacation trip to Phoenix the next 3 weeks, I intend to check for tombstones of Jesse and wife.

I found no record of death of Jesse's wife - d Oct 1833 10 days bef husband.

The first deed of 200 acres in 1819 from James Turner is same place he lived on at time of his death and which the heirs sold - see deed enclosed. I could find no place where Bernard came from. I strongly suspect that he could some relation of the other Bernard's but could not prove it.

I think with a day of research work at Nashville, I could be able to find out something of him especially since you have proven him to be in Tenn. I am Corresponding with Mr Bernard your cousin in Tenn. He paid me the fee for enclose Good luck.

Services Held At Payson Mar. 20 For Lewis Bernard, 96

Funeral services for Lewis Bernard, 96, of Pleasanton, Calif., former resident of Payson and Barry, were held Saturday, March 20, 1971, at 11:00 A. M. in the Cosgrove-Gill Funeral Home at Payson. Burial was in Payson New Cemetery.

Masonic services were conducted at the funeral home by Barry Lodge No. 34, with A. Kaylor, Master, Ray Gleckler, chaplain, and Harold Ewing, secretary, in charge. Other Barry Masons attending were Alex Likes, Carl Kelso, Otis Earnest, Kenneth Wagy, Lucian Strubinger, Jack Jennings and Lewis Parrick Sr.

Mr. Bernard died at Pleasanton Wednesday, March 17.

He was born at Payson Dec. 4, 1874, a son of Horace and Marcia Bernard. He was a 72-year member of the Barry Masonic Lodge. He was raised in Payson Lodge No. 379. On April 4, 1899, he affiliated with the Barry Lodge, receiving his 50 year pin in 1949 and his 70-year pin in 1969.

His marriage to Loia Blauser occurred in 1900. She preceded him in death. After their marriage, they moved to Barry where Mr. Bernard was an undertaker for a few years before becoming a clerk for the Burlington Railroad. He retired in 1936.

Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. J. C. (Margaret) McEwen of Pleasanton.

[illegible]elebrating Seventie[illegible] Y[illegible]r As Member Of Barry Lodge

The 70th Masonic Anniversary of Lewis Bernard, 94, of 833 Abbie Street, Pleasanton, California, formerly of Barry, will be honored at a stated meeting of Barry Lodge No. 34, AF & AM, Monday, April 7, at 8:00 o'closk.

Mr. Bernard was raised to the degree of Master Mason April 4, 1899 in Payson, Ill. Lodge No. 379 and became affiliated with Barry Lodge No. 34 August 16, 1902. He was recommended for affiliation by Brethern Charles H. Hurt, Nathaniel R. Davis and Fred Strubinger. The investigating committee consisted of A. L. Jones, T. F. O'Brien and Marion Clingingsmith.

Officers of Barry Lodge No. 34, when Mr. Bernard became affiliated with it were: Henry Longerhaus, Master; N. R. Davis, SW; John Parker, JW; J. B. Watson, treas.; Charles H. Hurt, sec.; Wm. Haley, chaplain; O. K. Garrett, SD; Marion Clingingsmith, JD; Robert George, SS; A. L. Jones, JS; B. W. Rowland, marshal; and Thos. Sheppard, tyler.

On April 15, 1949, Mr. Bernard received his 50-year membership card and pin from the Barry Lodge. Officers at this time were: Thos. B. Hughes, Master; Meredith Hull, SW; Lyndle Likes, JW; Fred Hufnagel, treas.; Harold Ewing, sec.; Walter Crider, chaplain; W. G. McNeal, SD; Robert Ownby, JD; Clifford Kehrer, SS; Jack Jennings, JS; Tom Neuberger, marshal; and Julian Strubinger, tyler.

Other 50-year members of the Barry Lodge include Charles O. Royalty, A. Kaylor, Fred Hufnagel, E. C. O'Brien Sr., T. A. Reynolds, Alex H. Likes and Simon J. Moyer. W. G. McNeal will receive his 50-year pin June 11, 1969.

Mr. Lewis Bernard 1969

According to Mr. Ewing, there are only thirty-three 70-year Masons in the State of Illinois out of a membership of 210,000.

Mr. Bernard was born Dec. 4, 1874 at Payson and received his education in the Payson schools. On Sept. 26, 1900, he was married to Lola Blouser, also of Payson. They farmed in that area for a few years.

Mr. Bernard then went to embalming school; and upon finishing the course, became a funeral director partner of Mr. Mike Lane of Barry, being in business here for several years in the early 1900s.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard went to California in 1953. In 1960, they went to live with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John C. McEwen of Pleasanton, because of Mrs. Bernard's health. Mrs. Bernard passed away in 1965.

Brother Masons have been sending Mr. Bernard notes and cards for his 70th Masonic anniversary. His daughter writes that he is enjoying them immensely and she has them placed on the mantle over the fireplace with his 70-year pin in the center.

She further says that she and her husband are having a few of Mr. Bernard's Masonic friends for dinner Friday evening, April 4, as a celebration of the occasion.

JOHN O. BERNARD, who for several years was extensively engaged in agricultural pursuits in Payson Township, is now living in retirement in one of the most attractive homes of Payson. He was born in Logan County, Ky., in 1817, and when sixteen years of age came with an older brother to this county, landing in Quincy in 1834, and, with the exception of two years' residence in Iowa, has since made his home in this county.

Our subject was one in a family of thirteen children, all of whom, with one exception, grew to mature years. His parents, Jesse B. and Mildred A. (Crewdson) Bernard, were natives of Virginia, and the father departed this life in Logan County, Ky. He of whom we write was given an excellent education, completing a preparatory course in Shurtleff College at Alton, prior to which time, however, he clerked for one year, and thus gained a good insight into business affairs. When ready to establish a home of his own, he was married, November 24, 1840, to Miss Susan Harwell, who was born in Davidson County,

To Mr. and Mrs. Bernard have been born seven children, three of whom grew to mature years, namely: Henrietta, now Mrs. Henry V. Lewis, of Ashland, Neb.; Horace, who is a prominent farmer of Payson Township; and Belle V., the wife of James H. Pope, who resides on the old homestead.

The wife of our subject was the daughter of Frederick and Susan (Yates) Harwell, who, it is supposed, were natives of North Carolina. Her parents dying when she was an infant, Mrs. Bernard was taken into the home of an aunt, whose husband was a distant relative of our subject.

He of whom we write began life with limited means, and in the acquirement of his valuable property has shown more than ordinary skill in his calling as a farmer and business man. He still has in his possession a valuable estate comprising one hundred and forty-seven acres of land, on which are placed a substantial residence and all the latest conveniences for carrying on agriculture. He has been connected with the Missionary Baptist Church since 1840, and has ever made it his aim to present an example of true piety and due honor to the professions he made in his youth.

Mr. Bernard has been active as a politician, and has always been an unfaltering Republican. Personally, he is a clever, genial and whole-souled man, whose popularity is well grounded. For seventeen years, he was Secretary of the Payson Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and prior to his resignation in 1891 had succeeded in making it the fourth best of its kind in the entire State. His son Horace, a popular and efficient young business man, succeeded him to that office.

Helen Shepherd Shelton's article on the 125th birthday of the Congregational Church of Payson, Ill. states:
"Deacon Scarborough and family arrived in Quincy 11 October 1834 and spent the winter buying up land hoping to keep it out of the hands of speculators in the hope of encouraging good Yankees to come to help build a church and a desirable Society. He had 1,500 acres where the village of Payson now stands and built a church and a log cabin. He was an admirer of Rev. Edward Payson, D. D., an eastern minister and named the town for him.

"In 1835 with the help of two other early settlers, Philo M. Thompson and James Crewdson Bernard he plotted and recorded lots for the village. Instead of advertising or selling the lots to any willing buyer, they were held at $100.00 each and sold only to men of good character whom they cared to admit. When a group of disgruntled men withdrew from the village and made plans to plat another town one mile north of Payson, called their spot "West Union" the Payson men were made to realize t that the breach was serious and that two small towns so close together could not survive, a truce was called and a more liberal outlook was shown. With the sale of the first lots, he set aside 20% for the building of a public school and gave four acres for the school. . ."

James C. Bernard was a farmer primarily but had learned tanning and harness making. He contracted to make saddles for the Union Army. The price of leather went very high and he went bankrupt.

The family portrait album was given to his daughter, Arabella Bernard Trimble and is now owned by Harry Bernard Trimble, 1715 Kenmont Street, St. Louis, Mo., 63124.

"Wm. W. Bernard, superintendant of Wyeth & Co Mfg. came to this city in 1863. His father was a harness and saddle manufacturer and the son, while very young worked at the trade and early became an expert in all branches of the business. During this time he was sent to school and received a good education, preparing himself for business. At maturity he went into business with his father and remained with him until he came to this city. He immediately established himself in business here and continued it until Jan. 1870 when he was employed by W. W. Wyeth & Co. to take charge of their large saddle and harness business as superintendent. Since his connection with the Company's business, it has increased from a working force of ten or twelve to seventy-five and is one of the most complete establishments in the entire west. The plan and construction of their new building on Second Street was the work of Mr. Bernard. He married Miss Ella Cubberly in Middletown, Ohio in 1860. There

Helen E. Cochran Weds Dr. Skinner

Miss Helen Elizabeth Cochran was married Saturday afternoon in First Presbyterian Church, Newark, to Dr. Charles Kimball Skinner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Cochran of Paper Mill Road, Newark. Dr. Skinner is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Skinner of Newark.

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father. She wore a Victorian gown of gardenia French silk faille which terminated in a chapel train. Her mantilla was of Brussels net and Alencon lace, and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and lemon leaves.

Mrs. John D. Rodgers of Oley, Pa., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John B. Cochran of New Castle, Mrs. James Stritzinger of Wilmington, and Miss Marjorie Lee of Newark, niece of the bride.

They wore floor length gowns of Waterford blue with matching headpieces, and they carried bouquets of azaelea pink chrysanthemums and lemon leaves.

DR. GLENN S. Skinner Jr., of Martinez, Calif., was best man for his brother. Ushers were John B. Cochran, brother of the bride, Dr. Eugene Wollaston of Chicago, Ill., Daniel H. Palmer of Hockessin, Robert S. Townsend of Greenville, and Duane Kimball of Rochester, N.Y., cousin of the bridegroom.

MD

The bride was graduated from Newark High School and is a student at the University of Delaware. Dr. Skinner, a graduate of that university and Temple University School of Dentistry, is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Omicron Kappa Upsilon honor societies, and of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He is a dentist in Newark.

After a wedding trip to New England, the couple will reside at 711 W. Nottingham [illegible]

Dr. Charles Skinner: Winning Honors Is A Part of His Life

The Weekly Post, Nov 14, 1973

Dr. Charles K. Skinner

Dr. Charles K. Skinner is a native Newarker who has had a dental practice here since 1963. His roots in the Newark area (if you'll excuse the expression) are deep. His father, Glenn S. Skinner, Sr., was a Professor of Chemistry at the University of Delaware from 1928 to 1958. His mother, Pauline K. Skinner, was head of the Department of Biology of Women's College of the University of Delaware from 1928 to 1930.

As a point of interest, he claims two great uncles who were important doctors. One of them was one of ten surgeons selected by President McKinley. The other was Chief Surgeon and Director of the Soldiers Home.

A graduate of Newark High School, where he walked away with top honors in almost everything, Dr. Skinner was first in his class. He was an Eagle Scout and a 9 letter winner in track, basketball and swimming.

He continued winning honors at the University of Delaware, graduating in 1957. From there it was on to the Temple University School of Dentistry. After that, Dr. Skinner served from 1961 to 1963 in the Air Force as a Captain in the 837th Tactical Hospital. He was moderator of the Dental Section and received the Air Force Outstanding Unit Ribbon.

The next stop, of course, was Newark, and Dr. Skinner has been busy here too. He is presently a director of the Greater Newark Chamber of Commerce and a member of its Area Development Committee. Active in the Newark Lions Club, he was a club officer in 1969-70, Chairman of the Welfare Committee at the same time, Telephone Directory Distribution Chairman this year and is also a member of the Sons of the American Revolution and the Century Club of the University of Delaware

His sisters and brothers.

On April 1, 1726, Constance Paine aged 63 (King George Rec. D. B. 1, p. 344) deposed that she knew James^1 Kay, Sr., and William^1 Kay, his brother, and that they were reputed to be Lancashire men, that James^1 Kay married Sarah Iveson and had 5 children, James^2 Kay, the son, married Mary Pannill and had a son James^3, the only son now living. On October 9, 1677, Joan Iveson of Gloucester County, gave a negro girl to her grandson, William^2, son of James^1 Kay when he came of age, and the increase of this negro to James^1 Kay's other children, James^2, Robert^2, Richard^2, and Ann^2. Wit: William^1 Kay and Abraham Iveson. (Old Rappahannock Deeds, Wills, etc., No. 6, p. 26.) This is the last record the writer has found of William^1 Kay, whether he died childless in Stafford or returned to England we do not know. Joan Iveson was most likely the widow of Abraham Iveson, Sr., who in 1636 was a headright for James Vanerit (Nugent's Cavaliers and Pioneers, Vol. 1, p. 50). On March 20, 1650/1 Mr. Anthony Ellyott patented 1,150 acres lying on the northwest side of the North River in Mobjack Bay and 100 acres lying on northwest side of the North River in Mobjack Bay, running along the marked trees dividing this from the land of Abraham Iveson (Idem., p. 208). A few months later (Idem., p. 217), Mr. Abraham Iveson patented 655 acres on the Southwest side of the North River in Mobjack Bay. By 1656 Abraham Iveson, Jr., is patenting land (Idem., p. 328) and in 1665 (Idem., p. 548) Mr. Abraham Iveson, Sr., has among his headrights for 985 acres in Gloucester County, Anne Key. Between this date and 1677 when Joan Iveson made a gift to her grandchildren, Abraham, Sr., must have died. Anne Key, who was his headright, may have been his granddaughter.

In 1678 (S. L. O. Book 9, p. 630), James^1 Kayes patented 2,000 acres in Rappahannock on the north side of the river and in the "freshes" thereof, beginning at a marked tree standing on a point near the north of the Doeg's Creek on the north side thereof, 1,680 acres of this land being formerly granted unto Col. Gerrard Fowke and Richard Heybeard on March 28, 1664, and sold by the said Richard Heybeard (being the survivor), unto the said James^1 Keyes, the remaining 320 acres being due for the transportation of seven persons into the colony, viz: John Palmer, Jane Norway, Ann Fielding, Thomas Richards, Nicholas Delfe, Thomas Arnold. This land was in Old Rappahannock County up to 1692, when the territory on the north side of the Rappahannock River between Lancaster and Stafford Counties became Richmond County. In 1721 the western part of Richmond became King George County, and from that date James^1 Kay's descendants were residents of the new county.

James^1 Kay, Sr., died between the date of the above patent and 1687, for on November 19, 1687 (Old Rappahannock 1680-1688, p. 441) James^2 Kay and Mary his wife sold to Richard Price for 4,500 lbs. tob. a tract of land in the "freshes" of the Rappahannock River, containing 100 acres "being part of a divident of land purchased by Mr. James^1 Kay late of this county deceased of Mr. Richard Heaberd of Stafford County containing 1,680 acres and patented March 24, 1664/5." Mary gave power of attorney to her loving friend and kinsman James Taylor to relinquish her dower rights in this land. By July, 1701, James^2 Kay was dead and Mary, his widow, presented in court the appraisement of his estate (Richmond County O. B. 3, p. 104). Francis Stone in 1707 made gifts to his step-children "Sarah,^{3} and Katherine^3 Kay, daughters of his wife Mary Stone by her former husband James^2 Kay" (William & Mary, 1st Series, Vol. 17, p. 77), and on April 8, 1714, evidently having just reached 14 James^3 Kay, 3rd of the name, chose William Thornton his guardian (Richmond County O. B. 6, p. 188). About 1730 (King George D. B. "A", p. 96) he deeded land to Samuel Skinker reciting he was the only heir of his father James^2. In 1769 the King George Quit Rent Roll shows he owned 128 acres (Archives Division, Va. State Library). This James^3 seems to have lived to be very old for the will of James^3 Kay, Sr., presumably the same person, dated June, 1794, proved February 5, 1795, is in King George Rec. W. B. 2, p. 186. His legatees were his grandchildren, Molly^5 and James^5 Kay, "children of my son John^4 and Katherine his wife." The grandson did not long survive for on April 2, 1795, his will was probated (Idem., p. 190). His only legatee was his sister Molly^5 Kay whom he left to the care of his "uncle John Peed". It would seem probable that with the death of this James^5 Kay, the male line of James^2, son of the immigrant James^1 became extinct.

We take up next Robert^2 son of the immigrant James^1. Robert^2 by 1695 had married Mary, daughter of John Waight, of Essex County, for in that year her brother Robert confirmed to her the land bequeathed her by her father, 209 acres lying on the north side of a creek called The Golden Vale "and now in her possession" (Essex Rec., 1692-1695, p. 379). This land in the Essex Quit Rent Roll for 1704 is listed as in the possession of Robert^2 Kay. In Essex O. B. 1723-25, p. 65, November 20, 1723, there is a suit for debt brought by Ann Ayres, late Ann Sallis, Alexander Doniphan and Sarah, his wife, late Sarah Sallis, Samuel Sallis and Sarah^3 Kay by Robert^2 Kay her father, plaintiffs agt. Robert Taliaferro executor of John Taliaferro, deceased, and John Taliaferro, son and heir of Francis Taliaferro, deceased defts. The plaintiffs seem to be heirs of Samuel Sallis whose estate was inventoried in 1704. Robert^2 Kay's land on the north side of "Golden Vale" Creek extended to the Rappahannock River across which his son Robert^3 operated a ferry, giving bond therefor with Robert Jones as his security in January, 1726/7 (Essex D. & W. 18, p. 246). With the erection of Caroline County in 1728, the upper end of Essex, which was St. Mary's Parish fell into the new county, and in 1729 (King George O. B. 1721-34, p. 460), we find a reference to "Kay's landing in Caroline".

But before that Robert^2 Sr., had died and his will dated November 5, 1725, proved July 19, 1726, is in Essex W. B. 4, p. 157. He bequeaths to "loving son Robert^3 one trunk that I brought of England and one brown table and my gun and my cooper's tools". He also mentions daughters Mary^3 and Sarah^3 (both under age) and makes wife Sarah and son Robert^3 executors. Robert^3 Junior presumably son of his father's first wife, Mary Waight was of age in 1726 and probably born about 1700.

The fact that his land lay now in Caroline takes Robert,^{3} Jr., definitely out of Essex County affairs, and we next hear of him through Orange County Records (D. B. 5, p. 38) when on March 24, 1742/3, Samuel Taliaferro of Caroline County sells to Robert^3 Kay of the same 400 acres in Orange County granted September 8, 1736, to John Garth and by the said John Garth conveyed to said Samuel Taliaferro. Garth's patent for this land (S. L. O. Book 16, p. 174) describes it as lying on the branches of Stanton's River, the name given then to the north branch of the Rapidan. After 1749, this land lay in Culpeper, the Rapidan dividing Orange and Culpeper. The only other patent to John Garth shown in the land books is for 400 acres in Louisa County on both sides of the South Anna River beginning at John Ragland's corner (S. L. O. Book 22, p. 416, August 20, 1745). This land was never in Orange.

We do not know the name of Robert^3 Kay's wife, nor the exact date of his death, but on August 11, 1763 (Car. O. B. 1759-63, p. 450), the court orders John Boutwell, John Bowie, John Catlett and John Miller to appraise the estate of Robert^3 Kay, deceased, while William Twyman, Jonathan Cowherd, Thomas Kirtley, Jeremiah Early or any three of them are ordered to appraise his estate in Culpeper County. In 1770 (Car. O. B. 1767-1770, p. 408), Robert Gilchrist became guardian to Robert^4 and James^4 Kay. In Culpeper Rec. D. B. G., p. 366, October 10, 1774, Robert^4 Kay and Margaret his wife of St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper County, and James^4 Kay and Sarah, his wife, of Caroline County, sold to Thomas Graves of Bromfield Parish, Culpeper, 400 acres in Culpeper, "the former patent of John Garth". The only land of John Garth's that could be in Culpeper was the 400 acres that Robert^3 Kay had bought some thirty years before, hence we conclude the present grantors Robert^4 and James^4 are his sons.

James^4 remained in Caroline where he died about 1795, for on March 12 of that year James Robb, George Catlett, Thomas Miller, John Hipkins, Ambrose Jones, David Morrow or any three of them are ordered to divide the estate of James^4 Kay according to his will (Car. O. B. 1794-96, p. 70).

Robert^4, James'^{4} brother, was as we have seen living in Culpeper in 1774 with his wife Margaret, whose ancestry we shall take up later. According to the Bible record, "Robert Kay, Sr., born February, 1751, died October 20, 1823, aged 72 years, 8 months, 20 days", and "Peggy, his wife, died May 21, 1815, aged 66 years". The exact date of the marriage is unknown, but their elder son Gabriel^5 was born May 13, 1774, and their younger son, James^5, January 19, 1778. Robert^4 Kay, like many other residents of Culpeper, moved to Christian County, Kentucky, where his will dated December 29, 1821, and proved November 3, 1823, is of record (Christian Co. W. B. "D", p. 118). He divided his estate between his son James^5 and the heirs of his deceased son Gabriel^5, which would seem to show there were no other children.

The following are from two Bibles, one in 1936 in the possession of Mr. Robert Garnett^7 Kay, II of Payson, Illinois, and the other then in possession of Mrs. Myrtle Lewis Kyser of Grenola, Kansas. The copies were made by Mrs. S. W. (Ida^9 Lewis) Pinkerton and have been checked with the originals. To avoid repetition, the records are given in this form.

Rec., p. 355), Evans Long married by 1785 Lucy, daughter of John Apperson (Idem., p. 42), and Nimrod by 1796, married Ellen Williams, a devisee of Isaac Hite, (Slaughter's St. Mark's Parish, part 1, p. 108, Chalkley's Abstracts of Augusta County Rec., Vol. 2, p. 66).

James[5] Kay (1778-1835), younger son of Robert[4] Kay and Peggy Long married in Culpeper County August 12, 1802, Sarah Waggoner (born August 30, 1784, in Culpeper, died in St. Joseph, Missouri, February 8, 1859), daughter of James and Elizabeth Waggoner. James[5] Kay moved in 1817 to Christian County, Kentucky, where his will is on record (W. B. "I" 1835-1837, p. 147). In this will, he mentions wife Sarah, children Robt. G.[6] Kay of Illinois, William[6] Kay of Tennessee, Gabriel[6] Kay, James[6] Kay, Thirza[6] Bernard, wife of J. C. Bernard of Illinois, Helen[6] Kay, Lucy Ann[6] Kay, Mary Frances[6] Kay (the last three under age) and granddaughter Mariam Cornelius[7] Ingram "daughter of Jesse Ingram and Margaret[6] Ingram his wife (who before marriage was my daughter and who is now dead) of Stewart County, Tennessee". For further details see Bible record given above.

Gabriel[5], the older son of Robert[4] Kay was born May 13, 1774, and died in Virginia, December 18, 1818, he married in Culpeper County in 1802 Frances Waggoner, sister of Sarah Waggoner who married his brother James.[5] They had issue Betsy Ann[6] born November 7, 1803, Peggy[6] born July 27, 1805, Reuben,[6] Nimrod,[6] Gabriel[6], Susan[6] and Rebecca[6].

Waggoner ancestry

We take up next the ancestry of the Waggoners who like many other Culpeper families had their roots in Essex County. Waggoner is likely English and an occupational surname, but no effort has been made to trace them prior to their arrival in Virginia.

In Old Rappahannock Rec. 1663-68, p. 34, John Waggoner witnessed a deed from Thomas Goodrich dated July 7, 1666, and on January 20, 1668/9 (Old Rappahannock Rec. 1668-72, p. 73) he purchased land. In 1670, as John Waggoner tailor he leased from Richard White and Audrey his wife for 99 years 130 acres the consideration being 2,600 lbs. tob. and "one valuable pair of gloves to her the said Aubrey in hand paid," with a yearly rent of one fat capon. (Idem., page 345). In 1704 Quit Rent Roll for Essex, he owned 400 acres. In Essex County Court, depositions were made in 1708 relative to the arrival of Nathaniel and Philip Pendleton in the colony in the year 1674, and among the deponents were John Waggoner aged 65, his wife Rachel 55 and George Ward aged 57. (Essex D. & W. 13, p. 118.) John therefore was born 1643, and his wife 1653.

His will dated February 12, 1715/6, proved May 15, 1716, mentions wife Rachel, son Benjamin, daughter Margaret wife of William Allen son Samuel son Herbert and daughter Dinah wife of Erasmus Allen. Rachel died 1718 and mentions in her will besides her sons and daughters, two grandchildren Rachel Cheney and Rachel Waggoner (Essex W. B. 3, p. 39). Rachel Cheney was daughter of Erasmus Allen and Dinah Waggoner (Essex W. B. 3, p. 196).

There had also been a son John who died in 1697; in his will (D. & W. 1695-99, p. 95), he left a tract of land to his brother Samuel with reversion to youngest brother Benjamin, "to brother Andrew my gun, to my loving father John Waggoner—my cooper's tools", and mentions "my brother James and my well-beloved Mother".

James, in 1680, when under 15 had been given a cow by John Wells (Old Rappahannock 1677-1682, p. 277), though no relationship between donor and recipient is specified. The following is all we know of James' subsequent career: "April 10, 1696, Essex County. These are to certifie to all whom it may concern that the subscriber intends for Pensilvania by the first opportunity. Any that please may speak with him at any time at John Waggoner's house in this county this month. (signed) James Waggoner." (Essex D. & W. 9, p. 36.) Andrew, another son of the immigrant probably left Essex also, as we have no record of him.

Samuel remained in Essex and died 1729. In his will (W. B. 4, p. 312), he leaves to son Samuel all his land, to wife Christian all his estate for life, and at her death to be divided among his five children, Lucreecy, Samuel, Price, Winifred and Temperance Waggoner; his wife as executrix is to pay them their parts as they come of age if she see fit. Christina did not live to carry out her trust, for in May, 1730, William Allen and Benjamin Waggoner qualified as administrators on her estate (W. B. 4. p. 356). Samuel the son was born December 22, 1716 (O. B. 1723-25, p. 74).

Benjamin, youngest son of John and Rachel Waggoner, received in 1721 from George Ward "for love and affection to my well beloved godson", 300 acres of land, "all my negroes and other property, messuage and tenement" and "also what I have due or may become due in the hands of John Moody, Sr." (Essex D. & W. 16, p. 289.) It is possible that George Ward was brother of Rachel Waggoner. Benjamin died about 1749. In his will he mentions son William, "to George Garrett 2 acres land, to wife the plantation on which I live for life and at her decease to son Nathaniel, also to son Nathaniel part of the land where my father dwelt", son Benjamin, "unto Samuel Alan £30 current money for the mulatto that I sold that his wife's grandfather left her", "all my children William, Benjamin, Nathan, Frances, Rachel, Sarah and [illegible]".

Benjamin had been the last of the brothers to die, his brother Herbert in whom we are particularly interested, having died in 1743. In his will dated August 2, 1743, proved September 20, 1743, and witnessed by Benjamin Waggoner and John Allen, Jr., he leaves to wife [illegible] all his land for life and at her death to go to eldest son John. His personal estate is "to be divided equally among all my children whose particular names I shall here mention, Ann Greenhill, Mary Evans, wife of John Evans, The copy of Tyler's Quarterly to which I had access was so difficult to read that I have picked out that which was legible.

Hubert, (Nugent's Cavaliers and Pioneers, Vol. 1, p. 312), this was probably an error made long ago by the copyist of Patent Book 3, and the name should be Jeremy Long. In 1678 (Old Rappahannock Rec. 1677-1682, p. 230) Jeremiah Long bought of James Jackson and Susanna, his wife, 128 acres lying on the head of Golden Vale Creek. By August 12, 1687, Jeremiah Long was dead and his widow made the following deed: "I Frances Long of Rappahannock County and St. Mary's Parish, widow, out of the natural love and respect I have to my children, Richard, John and Gabriel, Sara, and Ann, children of my loving husband Jeremiah Long, deceased, out of the natural love and affection I bear to my children afore mentioned do by these presents give grant and confirm to my above said children seven head of female cattle, viz. 4 head of the oldest cattle, viz. Cowslip, Brindy, Filpale and Lilly to my oldest children to them and their heirs forever, and to my youngest son Gabriel, I give a twoyear-old heifer called Colly, her with all her future female increase forever and for the two remaining of the seven aforesaid, I give and bequeath as of all rights they do belong to eldest son Richard Long." (Old Rappahannock Rec. 1680-1688, p. 374.) The names of these cows would surely give their milk an extra flavor. Incidentally, the names given cattle in the 17th century are fascinating, think of a calf "called Smith" (Old Rappahannock 1656-64, p. 211) or a cow with the poetic appellation of "Nightingale" (Idem., p. 260) !

In 1684 (Old Rappahannock O. B. 1683-86, p. 18) Andrew Harrison makes his first appearance in the county as a headright for Cadwallader Jones. In the 1704 Quit Rent Roll for Essex he owned 300 acres. His will (Essex W. B. 3, p. 84) dated April 28, 1718, proved November 18, 1718, describes him as "being grown very aged and at this time very sick and weak". He desires his wife Eleanor to be his executrix, son Andrew and son-in-law Gabriel Long, "to be my trustees and overseers". He further states that he has already settled three of his children, William, Andrew and Elizabeth on lands where on they now reside, and has put in the hands of William Stanard a certain sum to buy negroes for his wife's use, and that at her decease these negroes are to go to the three youngest sons of daughter Margaret Long, viz. Gabriel, Richard and William, as soon as they shall reach 21 years. Andrew Harrison was probably born between 1650-60, as in 1710 his sons William and Andrew were of age to hold land he deeded them and his daughter Elizabeth had married a Munday (Essex D. & W. 13, p. 365). His son Andrew, Jr., moved to Orange County and in 1751 made gifts of land to his sons Lawrence, John and Charles. (Orange D. B. 12, pp. 50-53.) We have no knowledge of Eleanor Harrison's maiden name nor date of death.

BERNARD "GRANDPARENTS"

CHAPTER VI

DESCENDANTS OF ABNER BERNARD

(Last chapter of BERNARD "GRANDPARENTS" BY Ted B. Bernard, Ph. D., 705 Finch Street, McKinney, Texas 75069. The book contains 172 pages, includes 106 Kings of direct lineage, and 82 generations. Selling price $7.50).

Following is a partial list of the many descendants of Abner Bernard. No attempt has been made to list those descendants from the many collateral branches derived from the families of children not leading directly to John Quincy Bernard born in 1821. Many of these collateral branches settled in Montgomery county, Kentucky, in Russell county, Kentucky, and in Parke county, Indiana, and from these key centers they have scattered throughout the country.

John Quincy Bernard and his wife Mary (Polly) Dockery reared their family in Russell county. Following Mary's death in 1869, John and the children moved to Parker county, Texas about 1870. In 1872 he married Elizabeth Woodruff, and since that time most of his descendants by both his first and second wives have been centered in or near Parker county. It is these descendants who who are in cluded in the following list.

GENERATION 73

B Abner Bernard, (Son of 72B); married Phebe about 1756; was doubtless the second son of John and Mary Bernard. Abner migrated to western Virginia, and from there to Montgomery county, Kentucky where it is thought he ramained until his death. One of his sons, Abner, migrated to Parke county, Indiana, and many of his descendants are still residents in that vicinity. Another son, Charles, migrated to Russell county, Kentucky where many of his descendants live at present. It was from these Russell county Bernards that the John Quincy family migrated to Texas and formed the nucleus of the descendants included in the following pages. Little is known about Abner's marriage or his wife Phebe except that in the deeds of his various real estate transactions, his wife Phebe was his co-signer. He was born in Albermarle county, Virginia about 1738, and probably died in Montgomery county, Kentucky, but the date is not known.

He had two brothers and one sister. John Bernard,Jr. was born November 16, 1736, and married Elizabeth Barnett on March 6, 1760. Peter Bernard was born about 1740, and married Agnes. Elizabeth Bernard was born in Albermarle county, was carred away by Indians, and never returned.

GENERATION 74

B Charles Bernard, (Son of 73B); first of several children; was born about 1757; migrated to western Virginia and then to Montgomery county, Kentucky with his father Abner, and later settled in what is now Russell county, Kentucky where he remained until his death in 1831; after reaching his twenty-first birthday, according to Hill's history of Henry county, Virginia, page 305, Charles took his oath of allegience to the new government in 1778 during the American Revolution; little is known about his marriage or his wife except that in the deeds of his various real estate deals, his wife Sarah was his co-signer.

Charles had a brother Abner Bernard, Jr., born between 1750 and 1760, who settled in Montgomery county, Kentucky about 1800; later he migrated to Parke county, Indiana where many of his descendants still live.

GENERATION 75

B John Bernard, Sr., (Son of 74B); born in Virginia in 1785; married Leah about 1805; was probably the third of at least ten children of Charles and Sarah Bernard; migrated to Russell county, Kentucky with his father about 1800, and remained there until his death in 1855. According to a biography of Dr. Luther Lee Bernard in Who's Who in Kentucky for 1937, John Bernard, Sr. was secretary of the district lodge of Masons for many years and was a friend and political supporter of Andrew Jackson. Little is known about his marriage or his wife Leah, except that she was his co-signer in various real estate transactions; according to the 1840 census of Russell county they had seven children at home at that time which would not have included other children married or dead before that date.

John, Sr. had two brothers, Peter and Henry,born in Virginia,and a third brother born after his parents left Virginia, Hiram.

GENERATION 76

B3 John Quincy Bernard, (Son of 75B); born in Russell county, Kentucky on October 2, 1821; on his birthday twenty-four years later, he married his first wife, Mary (Polly) Dockery. In their family reared in Russel county there were six children, five boys and one girl. Mary's father was John Dockery who would be the "Grandfather" of all descendants of John Quincy and Mary Dockery. Mary's brother Hugh was administrator of his deceased father in 1863. Mary died in Russell county on September 17, 1869 after which John Quincy and the children migrated to Parker county, Texas where many of their descendants still live.

B4 John Quincy Bernard, (Son of 75B); it should be noted that John Wuincy is listed under two index numbers, (B3) and (B4), one for each of his two families. John Quincy married his second wife, Elizabeth Woodruff in Parker county, Texas on June 9, 1872. They owned and lived on a small farm where they were parents of a second family of five girls and five boys. Elizabeth was born on January 20, 1857 in Parker county and died on July 21, 1939 in the vicinity of her birth place. John Quincy died in Parker county on November 12, 1902. Following the death of John Quincy, Elizabeth married a Mr. Kelly. Some time later Mr. Kelly died, and Elizabeth married her third husband, a Luther Rater, on June 21, 1914. Some years later Luther Rater died and Elizabeth was a widow for several years before her death.

John Quincy had a sister Leny Bernard who married Samuel Hopper. John Quincy's last daughter, Linnie, was named after his older sister Leny. This daughter Lennie is still living, 157 years after the birth of her father. John Quincy also had an older brother, William W. who was a preacher, and also a partner with John Quincy in several real estate transactions.

a Francis Tarpley Bernard, (Son of 76B3); born in Kentucky on December 14, 1846, and died at the age of 14 on September 18, 1870.

b John Dockery Bernard, (Son of 76B3); born in Kentucky on December 6, 1848. After coming to Texas with his father, he married Sarah Catherine on March 16, 1869 witnessed by Silas R. Bernard and John Gossar. Their family were born and reared in Texas, and many of their descendants live in or near Parker county. Sarah was born in Texas in 1851.

c William O. Buttler Bernard, (Son of 76B3); born in Kentucky on February 2, 1851; died March 17, 1865.

d Franklin Pearce Bernard, (Son of 76B3); born in Kentucky on December 14, 1853; came to Texas with his father about 1870. He married Nancy Light about 1873, and died on March 27, 1887. Nancy was born September 22, 1854, and died in 1929. Both were buried in Hill's cemetery near Lipan, Texas.

e Mary Sabrina Bernard, (Daughter of 76B3); born in Kentucky on march 23, 1859, and died six days later.

f Allen Degraffin Bernard, (Son of 76B3); born in Kentucky on March 23, 1859, and died in his infancy.

g Robert Lee Bernard, (Son of 76B4); born in Parker county, Texas on September 19, 1873, and died October 20, 1880.

h Jefferson Davis Bernard, (Son of 76B4); born in Parker county on June 19, 1875; married Jessie Phillips February 23, 1899; died February 18, 1951. Jessie was born April 18, 1883, and died September 5, 1974 in her ninety-second year. Until the last few months of her life she lived alone and kept house in the little cottage which she owned until her death. They were humble, God-fearing people with a bare minimum of worldly possessions, but they transmitted integrity, ambition, and affluent qualities to their children as few parents have done. During most of their lives they lived in a log cabin on a poor sandy land farm with an annual income rarely exceeding $500.00.

In crowded conditions they reared six of their children to adulthood. These six children after attending a one-teacher rural school for six months each year struggled in paying their own way through high schols and colleges, received diplomas and college degrees, and eventually all enjoyed affluent lives with successful businesses of their own. The parents were deeply dedicated Christians and their message to their children is accurately expressed in a quotation from the Bible. "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk" (Acts 3:6).

i General Beauregard Bernard, (Son of 76B4); born in Parker county on September 14, 1878, married Cora Hood April 9, 1899, and died March 30, 1968. Cora was born in Mississippi on June 26, 1881, and is now living in Weatherford at the age of 97. General owned a large productive farm, was a successful farmer, a bank director, a leader in civic affairs, and was the affluent member of the family. Much of my education was due to their generosity and kindness, because I lived with them while I was too young to go to school alone from my parents home, and also while I was attending a small village high school for a few months before starting to college. The names of the first three of John Quincy's children, Robert Lee, Jefferson Davis, and General Beauregard in his second family as listed above indicate his deep sympathy for the Southern Confederacy.

j Carrie Cordelia, (Daughter of 76B4); born April 24, 1882, and died September of 1885.

k Hiram Abbott Bernard, (Son of 76B4); born September 13, 1884, and died in infancy.

m Lillie May Bernard (Privitt), (Daughter of 76B4); born September 10, 1887; married John Henry Privitt about 1905; John died in 1925, and later in life Lillie married Frank Hatton; her children were all by John Privitt; Frank later died and Lillie remained a widow, living in Weatherford the remainder of her life.

n Rufus Quincy Bernard, (Son of 76B4); born October 8, 1889; married Myrtle Francis Light who was mother of all his children; Myrtle died September 1, 1919 while the children were all young; Quincy did a marvelous job in rearing the children and later in life married his second wife, Allie Baltree; died August 26, 1948.

p Cora Bernard, (Daughter of 76B4); born as twin of Dora on April 28, 1892; died in infancy.

q Dora Bernard, (Daughter of 76B4); born as twin of Cora on April 28, 1892; died in infancy.

r Linnie Ellen Bernard (Masterson), (Daughter of 76B4); born February 11, 1894; married Elery Masterson on November 2, 1909 who was the father of all her children; Elery was born June 30, 1889, and died August 25, 1965. In 1972 Linnie married her second husband, Berry Edgman who died in 1975; Aunt Linnie is living in Lipan, Texas and is in good health 157 years after the birth of her father in 1821.

d6 George C. Bernard, (Son of 77d); born January 23, 1885; died without issue.

d7 Maude F. Bernard (Gilbert), (Daughter of 77d); born January 25, 1887; married Almoth Gilbert at Kickapoo Falls on February 2, 1904; the Gilberts were prosperous ranchers in Palo Pinto county located on Interstate 20 just west of the Brazos River; died at Santo, Texas on June 10, 1956; Almoth's parents were Almoth B. Gilbert and Mary Jane Hill.

H1 Ted Butler Bernard, (Son of 77h); born in Parker county on November 29, 1899; married Gertrude Barber on June 1, 1927; Gertrude was also born in Parker county on October 4, 1902 and taught school after attending North Texas State; Ted began teaching in the school where he had attended for years before, and continued in rural schools at the age of seventeen; through examinations and and negotiations he was admitted to North Texas State and graduated with honors; with an extra year of work he took both the B.S. and B.A. degrees; he later took the M.A. degree from Colorado State, and then the Ph.D. degree from Columbia University in New York City. For fourteen years he was Principal of Princeton High School in New Jersey which was considered one of the most beautiful and among the finest in the country. Because of poor health he resigned in 1946 and opened a retail carpet store in Dallas. For a number of years the annual sales of Bernard-Fain Carpets has far exceeded that of any other carpet store in the Southwest. Throughout his life he has taught Bible classes, and since his retirement in 1966 has written a series of ten books on the Bible. These achievements are listed as a tribute to a mother and father who passed legacies on to their children far more valuable than gold and silver.

h2 Florence May Bernard (Littlefield), (Dauther of 77h); was born in Parker county on April 26, 1902; married Plummer R. Littlefield on September 27, 1923 who was a civil service employee following his discharge from the army after World War I; she passed state examinations for a teachers certificate and began teaching at the age of sixteen. Some years after their marriage they opened an exclusive eating place in Weatherford from which they also did catering to groups who wanted the finest in foods. She has been a deeply committed Christian and has taught Bible classes for many years. Plummer died on April 29, 1970. Florence is retired and lives in Weatherford.

h3 Mamie Clara Bernard (Littlefield), Daughter of 77h); born in Parker county on September 7, 1908, and on her seventeenth birthday married Almuth Littlefield who was a brother of Florence's husband listed above. Almuth was the father of her children, and following a long illness with tuberculosis, died on December 15, 1945. Mamie opened a restaurant in Bronte, Texas where she reared a fine family of two girls and a boy. Eventually she married Ellis Watson. She was a deeply committed Christian and taught Bible classes before she died on December 19, 1959.

After their marriage Mack, with Odessa's help, struggled for a pharmacist certificate, and eventually they owned their drugstore in Bronte, Texas, and later in Bangs, near Brownwood, Texas. Their store in Bangs is a large beautiful modern pharmacy which they themselves built. They had no children of their own, but adopted three girls, the first two of which were daughters of our brother Gaylard. Odessa and Mack have liberally provided financial assistance for several young people who have done well in life because of the gratuity. Throughout her life she has been a devoted church worker.

h6 William Walker Bernard, (Son of 77h); born March 22, 22, 1915; married Maude Muriel Metzinger on May 28, 1939. Muriel was born August 4, 1917, and was the mother of Walker's children. Walker was a captain in the army, was recreational director for Chance-Vought following his discharge, and later both he and Muriel were teachers. They both took bachelor degrees from North Texas State and Walker later took his masters degree. Walker later married his second wife, Vanilah McClary, who had worked in the Fort Worth Public Library for twenty-five years. They married on July 25, 1975. He is now retired from teaching;is a real estate developer.

h7 Lester Gaylard Bernard, (Son of 77h); born August 26, 1917; married Clarabel about 1942; had two daughters, Belva Karen and Nona Gayl, both of whom were adopted by Odessa and Mack Rippetoe, and are listed as the Rippetoe adopted children.

h8 Lester Gaylard Bernard, (Son of 77h); (This is a second listing for Lester Gaylard since he has two families of children); married Ramona Mae Patterson December 3, 1946; was a captain in the air force. Ramona was born November 28, 1928, and for many years owned and operated a beauty shop in Colorado City, Texas. Gaylard built and has operated a large store similar to the Stuckey stores catering to tourists. He now has a tremendous operation called Tourist Town including a mobil home park, and a sub-irrigated farm all located on interstate 20 near Colorado City.

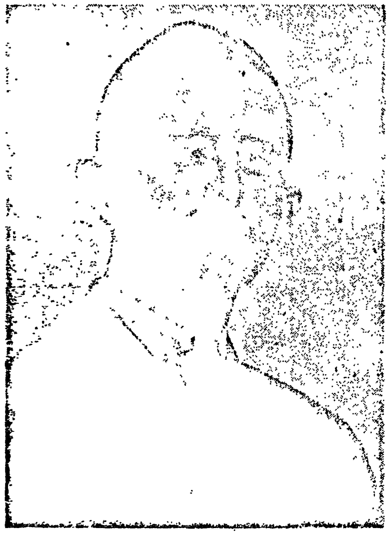
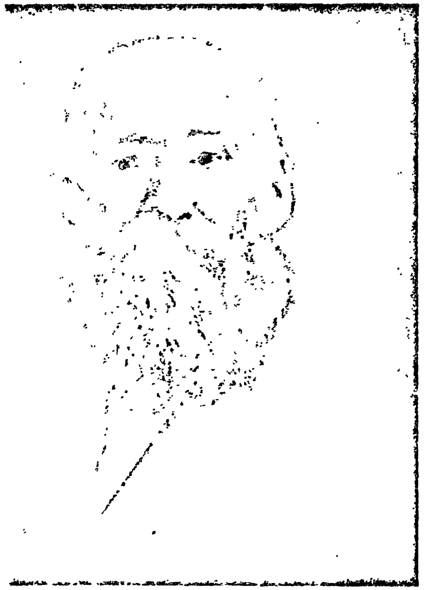
The Ordaining Council



REV. WILLIAM CUTLER CLARK, Moderator of the Ordaining Council

Mr. Clark served as pastor of Dr. Wingfield's home church forty years.

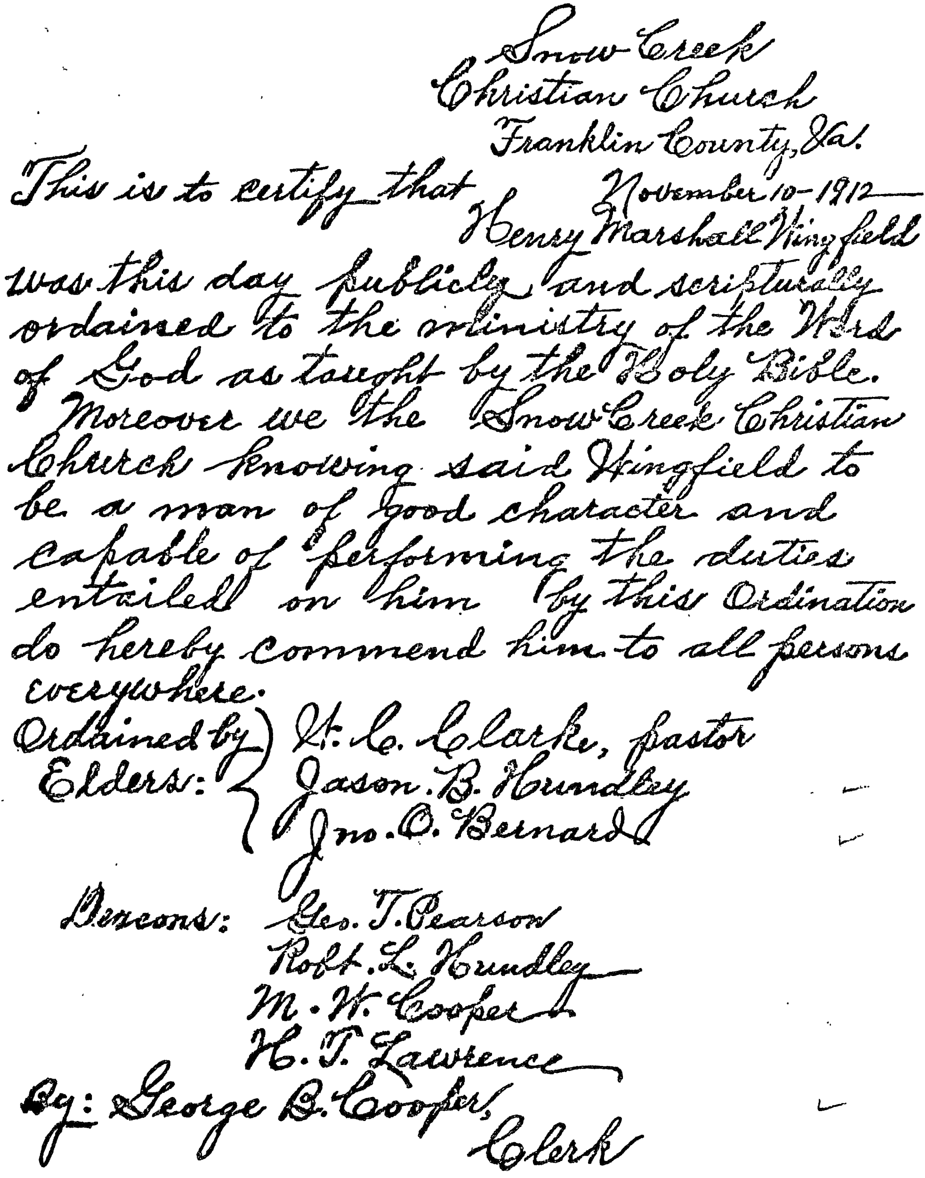


JASON BOAZ HUNDLEY

JOHN OREN BERNARD

These two distinguished Virginia churchmen, scholars and saints are pictured as they

The Ordination Certificate



Snow Creek
Christian Church
Franklin County, Va.

November 10-1912

This is to certify that Henry Marshall Wingfield was this day publicly and scripturally ordained to the ministry of the Word of God as taught by the Holy Bible. Moreover we the Snow Creek Christian Church knowing said Wingfield to be a man of good character and capable of performing the duties entailed on him by this Ordination do hereby commend him to all persons everywhere.

Ordained by Elders:
W. C. Clarke, pastor
Jason. B. Hundley
Jno. O. Bernard

Deacons:
Geo. T. Pearson
Robt. L. Hundley
M. W. Cooper
H. T. Lawrence

By: George B. Cooper,
Clerk

As Dr. Wingfield was about to leave the scene of ordination, he handed an engraved copy of the regular blank ordination certificate to Mr. Cooper for execution. The clerk crumpled it and tossed it aside, saying that he would have nothing to do with anything so mechanical and impersonal, that he was quite able to write a certificate himself and he proceeded to write, on the spot, the certificate here reproduced. Dr. Wingfield says that he was aghast at the destruction of the eng[illegible]d form so carefully provided for the occasion, but now is glad to have his old teacher's impromptu form

SILAS GARRETT BERNARD was a successful miller and the old millstone is still in Snow Creek (Virginia) the town where the mill was located (ground wheat and corn) just below where his home is located. It has been redone and is beautiful.
Gladys Washburn

SILAS GARRETT BERNARD was a surveyor in Franklin County, Virginiaand was also a skilled cabinet maker. He pursued this hobby in his spare time. He represented the County of Franklin in the General Assembly for the sessions of 1871-2 and 1872-3. His portrait hangs in the House of Delegates.

PETER BERNARD (Gladys Washburn says) some two hundred years ago, owned land on Gills Creek, he also had a tanyard An Indian stood on Bald Knob and shot one of the Bernard children. In 1811 Peter Bernard sold 100 acres which lay on both sides of Gills Creek "for $1.00 and more importantly for love which I bear for my son, Benjamin".

ABNEYS in ENGLAND

Abneys whose descendants were early settlers in Virginia, resided in Liecestershire. Their ancestor Nigel de Albani came from France with William the Conqueror.

Of these George Abney and wife Catherine had a son, Dannett born about 1657, who died and infant. Another Dannett was born in 1659 with a twin, George, both were baptized 2/26/1659 in St. Mary's Church in Leicester.

Their son, Paul, was a sailor in charge of a vessel captured by Spanish ships and cargo confiscated. British authorities told the Governor of Virginia not to imprison Paul and others. This induced Paul to settle in Virginia. Before leaving England, Paul was engaged to Mary Lee, his step-sister.

In the State Papers of England it is clearly shown that Dannett Abney was in Virginia in 1690. When Dannett left England to go to Virginia he brought Mary and her brother John Lee with him. After the death of George Abney, his widow, Bathshuba married Joseph Lee, rector of St. Mary's. After Paul's death in 1696, Mary married Dannett Abney, about 1702.

When Bathsuba Lee died in 1706, she gave her son, Dannett Abney, the bulk of her estate. He was in Virginia and never returned to England to claim it, so in time it escheated to the Crown. This gave rise to the tradition that the Abneys were heirs to an estate in England. Dannett Abney, a third cousin of James, grandfather of James who came to America, descended from George in England.

ABNEYS IN ENGLAND

James Abney, b. at Willesley in Leicestershire, England, was not satisfied with conditions in the country, was a non-conformist. Disagreed with his brother, deprived of Willesley, he left England in 1695 and settled near distant Abney kin in Henrico County, Virginia. Henry Abney, who received a land grant in Virginia in 1609 was a brother of an ancestor of James.

James was a grandson of a James who was a third cousin of Paul and Dannett who had settled earlier in Henrico county, Virginia.

THE FAMILY OF LYON
OF THE EASTERN SHORE OF MARYLAND

The first settlement in Maryland was made in 1634. John Lyon I is first noted in 1669 when he had 200 acres surveyed in Somerset County, 100 acres in possession of James Anderson. This was named "Wakefield:. Another tract, "Whitemarsh Delight" was assigned to John Lyon I in 1669 then in his possession in Somerset County.

John Lyon II, his som, morgaged the latter tract in 1690 which was paid off in 1698 . John Lyon I was a planter. He was paid by Maryland for military service against the Nanticoke Indians in 1678.

John Lyon I having paid transportation of himself and wife, Margery, also two others was granted in 1673 "Lyons Den" patented 1677 containing 200 acres. It was sold in 1679. It lay on Rowastico Creek of Nanticoke river in Somerset County. The Lyon lands were located in Wicomico County since 1867. The Nanticoke River being the boundary between Dorchester County and Somerset County.

According to Somerset County rent rolls "Lyons Den" was in possession of Widow Marrut (Marriott) widow of John Lyon I. He was also granted "Walles" patented 1685. He died in Dorchester County. William Marrut was in possession of it as his wife Margery had died. John Lyon II, goldsmith, and Mary sold it in 1695. He was of Dorchester County.

John Lyon II patented "Lyons Lot" in 1683. John and Mary sold Lyons Folly in 1696, patented in 1679. "Welshmans Kindness" 400 acres was surveyed for the heirs of John Lyon I in 1694 in possession of James Anderson. "Wakefield" surveyed in 1669 for 200 acres. Of this tract 100 acres was in possession of James Anderson.

The heirs of John Lyon II of Dorchester County were allowed funeral expenses of father which was paid to John Dawson 1709.

Will of John Lyon II of Talbot County 1702 witnessed by James Anderson and wife Rebecca, also John Gladstone. There were 3 heirs: John III the oldest, James and Peter; no other children.
